Happy New Year!

Around 40 members attended the first meeting for 2013. Ray Jordan introduced our guest speaker for this evening. Rose Kerr, our Rotary exchange student for 2013, will be studying in Brazil for the next 12 months. She has three host families, with whom she will spend 3 months each. Rose will be attending a school to learn Portuguese and make lots of friends. She will leave her email address so that we can follow her adventures and post entries of encouragement. Her big adventure starts on 19 January, pending her successful visa application. Morris thanked Rose and wished her well.

President Stephen encouraged members to follow her progress and reiterated from a personal perspective the life changing experiences of being an Exchange student and wished Rose the same experience.

Andy Perrella, Vocational; A vocational visit has been organized to Brown Hill Estate Winery on Monday 21 January. Partners are welcome, but we need a RSVP by 14 January to organize a bus. Correction from last Bulletin- you can bring beer and soft drinks- but obviously wine must be bought on premises. Anticipated departure time will be 5.30 on 21st Jan- place to be advised. This vocational visit will replace the normal Wednesday meeting on 23 January.

Peter Hill New Generations; Children's Fair is well underway with many entertainers booked. A reminder to members to keep Sunday 17 February free to help out. Last year we needed 65 helpers. A list of stations and helpers will be circulated over the next couple of weeks.

Ben Andrew, Administration; Ben requested suggestions for speakers for the New Year. Focus for the New Year will be to update audio-visual equipment, in particular to purchase an iPad. Reminder that this month is Rotary awareness month and as such, members are encouraged to spread the word about what we do and achieve. Ben will be attending RYLA in the next couple of weeks. There is a RYLA official dinner on 2 Feb, to which members are invited. Cost $30 pp. and you are encouraged to bring a musical instrument. Board members for 2013-14 are as follows;

WEEKLY COMPETITION

Dean Freeman sold 88 tickets tonight. On this day in 1868, the last boat load of convicts arrived in Fremantle. The jackpot stayed at $240, with Terry P, Neil S and Peter Kerr (guest) taking away some free wine.

FINES

Trevor Wilson was our fines master for this week. Rob carried the box but we don't know why???

Guess who was fined for .....

- Really sick jokes and a theory about a headless Collingwood supporter
- Cracking really bad jokes
- Their dog taking the human for a walk
- Giving late notice about the meeting tonight- when he had 2 weeks to remind us.
- Making cracks about this being SHORT notice.
- Communication problems with the trouble and strife (wife) something to do with EVOO (Extra Virgin Olive Oil).
- Getting free press for his photography conference
- Eating the Magician's entrée
- Not delivering the Onions
- Not doing anything fineable over Christmas- telling lies if did not.
- Emphasising the Mars and Venus debate- why do men use this as an excuse for not doing as they were told!

Glenys and Terry making reception look easy.
