The wheels on the bus go round and round.....

The week's meeting was officially a combined SBRC and Margaret River Rotary club Vocational meeting to Brown Hill Winery in Margaret River, hence the bus title. Sixteen SBRC members turned up at the car park opposite the BREC to board a rickety old bus, heading down to the winery somewhere between Sues Rd and Margaret River. President Stephen took presidential privilege by requesting he be picked up from the hospital. Next stop was Condello's, where we picked up Len, Terry, Gordon and Dean.

It might not look like it, but yeah I am comfortable.

Let's stretch those legs!

ROUND AND ROUND, ROUND AND ROUND ALL THE WAY TO BROWN HILL....

We were glad we picked up Len, who provided some fitting refreshments and nibbles to bide the one hour fifteen minute trip. Our skipper was 'Lead foot' Sandro, (Alias Steve McQueen!) who jiggled and joggled us through meandering roads to arrive, eventually, at the picturesque Brown Hill Winery.

Upon our arrival, it was clear that there was some differentiation. The Margret River Club had obviously arrived some time before us, being less than half an hour from their homes. Then there was their safari equipped mega-bus.

SBRC –Record for how many Rotarians can you fit into a mini-bus- and that was without the cases of wine on our return trip?

MRRC's bus- Loads of room with self-contained pull out barbeque kitchen.

'Oh you finally got here!'

Helena, gets to the sampling bar. Nathan and Jim served up some generous samples!

The MRRC enjoy some wine and food in an elegant social circle in the comfort of their foldaway chairs.....meanwhile.....

SBRC eats out of the back of the ute! Well... at least we used glasses!

What's this- yes there is always someone to uphold the values of fine picnic dining by fellow SB Rotarians. Andy saved the day with his fold up chairs.

Seriously though, it was a great night, a little on the chilly side as darkness crept in, but everyone enjoyed wagu hamburgers with delicious home grown (organic of course!) salad in freshly buttered buns, and gourmet sausages and onions. Shortly after dinner, dessert came out, with superb homemade tarts and pies and lashings of cream and ice cream! It was great to meet some new friends and enjoy fellowship and of course the wine was seriously good and reasonably priced. Check out the website on

Alas, we had a long trip home, so with special thanks from President Stephen to Ian Sharpie and President Richard (MRRC), we collected our bottles of wine, for some (who shall remain nameless) cases of wine and commenced our return. Andy provided some entertainment along the way and we arrived safe and sound in Bunbury around 10 pm.

Thanks to Sandro for being our skipper and to Andy for organizing the trip!

John and Cecily discussing the wine on the bus trip back home.
