The meeting in photos follows

President Glenys admitted, before the entire club, she wasn't upto the homework given to her grandson in grade 2. Cedric was thinking the same of himself.

Ray spent the entire evening glued to his laptop. Even in his talk to the members he remained seated, transfixed by his computer

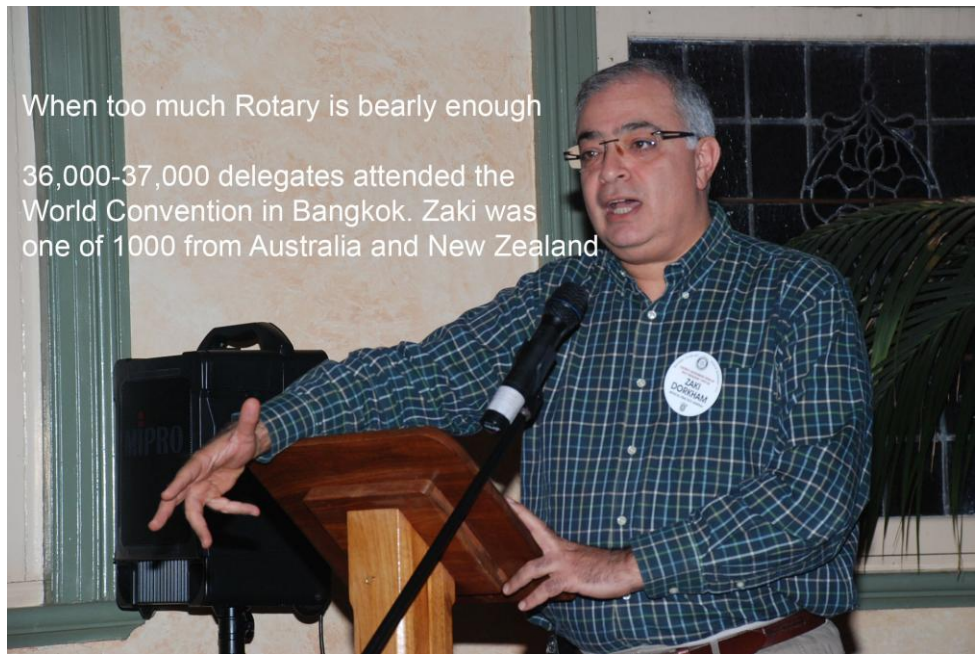

Trevor reminded us of the plight of many Australians doing it very tough.
Red Shield Appeal this and next weekend.
Please volunteer a few hours.

When too much Rotary is bearly enough

36,000-37,000 delegates attended the World Convention in Bangkok. Zaki was one of 1000 from Australia and New Zealand

He may look mature, and he does wear a wedding ring but it was on Wednesday Boyd lost his virginity. For his first time he performed quite well.

One of our most retiring members surprised the club by taking over Boyd's auction. The sale of the android phone donated by Telstra raised $100. Thank you Telstra and Boyd.

Sorry to disappoint....but that's it.
