Message from Kay and Rob Prestage to John Grey

Hi John,

Many thanks for your efforts in trying to help me with the wineracks. Would you please advise all those who were involved that they have been removed by the people clearing the asbestos.

I really appreciate all your help.

Yours in Rotary,
Kay and Rob

Our Club, through the President, Glenys, is the Executor of a deceased estate. The decision to accept the role of executor was carefully thought through as clearly described by Glenys. Glenys has taken on a very serious duty and will require all our help...Does this mean that Stephen takes over the role in July???

The meeting in photos follows

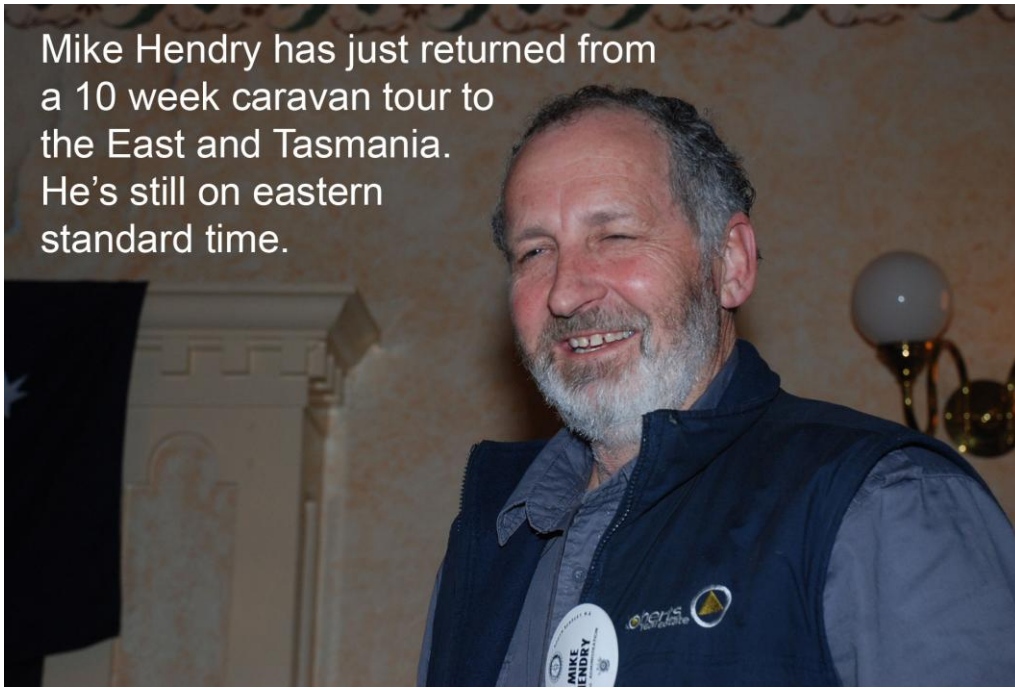

Macro-degeneration. It is the most common age related sight disease. It affects people of the grey haired variety.

Samar drops in for dinner and helps herself to a raffle prize....nice work

Mike Hendry has just returned from a 10 week caravan tour to the East and Tasmania.
He's still on eastern standard time.

It was Zaki's turn to cook
