

'Bunyips and Dragons' Australian Children's Book Illustration

'Bunyips and Dragons' is drawn from a collection of Australian children's book illustrations, donated to the NGV by Albert Ullin OAM. This exhibition presents an overview of children's picture books produced over the past 40 years. During the 1970s and 1980s the art of illustration rapidly developed and a new generation of illustrators emerged who helped shape a dynamic and diverse profession. The exhibition covers a great range of subjects and styles, which shows the wonderful visual imagination of Australian illustrators.

Albert is a member of Melbourne Sunrise Probus Club and will be there to guide us through the highlights of the exhibition.
