Tuesday's Wollundry Meeting

Presidents Report

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

Phil debated the issue of whether this was meeting number nine or ten, and after declaring his support for ten, the leader of the opposition, the member for Milde, was heard to withdraw from the debate.

Today was earmarked as a "Hillis" day, to deal with social issues and club business. The member rostered on fellowship had taken the initiative to set up our dinner badges at the tables so some established patterns of seating were disrupted. There were no visiting Rotarians, and no Members guests – the only guest was Nelson, and he gave a short account of his Canberra sojourn.

Last Sunday, the Rotary club presidents from group 5 of our district met with Assistant DG, Allan Sharp. There was discussion on cooperation in Projects, Calendars, Club Websites and District newsletter, and Phillip advised that there will be a forum of Club Presidents at Temora in three months, and called for issues to be considered on the agenda of that forum.

The peace ceremony in Wagga Wagga is coming up again, and we have been encouraged to be involved if the opportunity arises.

At the group meeting, Phil completed a 15 page questionnaire on club health, and can report that we are not in our death throes. However we failed the section on membership, and must be thankful that the AFL is not the responsible entity to decide our fate.

John Ferguson has been in the repair shop for a new knee, and President Phil advises that all is OK, he is getting around on crutches, will have his stiches out shortly, and hopefully we will see him next week. In football parlance, he is out for the season.

New Directions

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

Now I know that "New directions" sounds like a political slogan, but we are in the middle of an election campaign, and political speak is thick in the air. The Club board have taken note of a downward trend in the Sunday Market returns, and initiated some discussion on alternative projects to raise money for our community projects and commitments.

President Phil has collated the ideas developed by the board, and from input by other members, and presented these to the club in a powerpoint presentation. He spoke today about these options, and their relative strengths and difficulties.

The slides from his presentation are reproduced below, and are intended to generate a search for more options, provoke further discussion, and focus a wider range of minds on all the possibilities.

The projects listed are all intended to raise money to continue support for community commitments that are threatened as Sunday Market income falls away.

This process should not replace any efforts to renew the Sunday Market, or to alter the format, to reinvigorate our traditional and iconic flagship program.

Phillip explained in considerable detail the benefits, workload and status of each of the potential projects, and generally asked members for any suggestions on involving the club in these activities.

The Meal

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

The meal served at the meeting was Whiting Fillets, with chips and salad, but there was an alternative if you didn't eat fish – Chicken Schnitzel. Guess who had chicken.

Sunday Markets

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

James Ross ran the markets last Sunday, assisted by: Greg Conkey, Michael Eldridge, Kevin Moffat, Brian Roberts, Ken Taylor

James noted that the weather was fine, but with intensive competition, we had few stallholders. The competition was from markets at The Rock, The showground, and a function at the Men's Shed. We had a Jumping Castle, but James worked on that being rent free, and levied no charge. Included in the "no shows" were 6 of our prepaid stallholders, and there were only 15 stallholders, occupying 26 sites. Our food vendor advised James that we will probably miss the market on Sept 8, as that will clash with the Lake Albert fun run. The analysis of the takings was:

Gate	$415.00
Stalls	$250.00
Trestles	$22.00
Power	$10.00
Gas	$25.00
Total	$722.00

Next Weeks Program

Our Program at next weeks meeting will be a presentation from CSU scholarship recipients, Abbey Jones and Jessica Cole. The third student, Samuel Pearsall has a clash with lectures and is unable to attend our meeting.

Paul Milde has advised that a Poetry reading day will be programmed shortly, and members are urged to look for suitable poems to entertain, enlighten or impress fellow members.

VALE

Alan Lloyd's father passed away this past week. The Wollundry Board and all members extend their sympathies to Alan, Sandra and all the family.

Sergeant's Session

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

Laurie took the parade, and announced that this was his last Mediawatch based fine session – the same names kept coming up in the press. With artwork of a cash cow, coins appearing to come from Bovine hindquarters on the screen, the following media appearances cost a fine: Dream Cricket, Benn, Crozier and Milde. Presentation to Chris Blake, Pres Phil. Junior Football, Jai Blowes' grandfather.

John Ireland, Darren Wallace, Doug Sutton Rick Priest and Tim Barter were targeted, but not all in attendance.

There were cross fines too.

Graham Barrow no longer looks like his file photo on clubrunner. Peter Clucas, according to Mark Hillis, halfway through eating a small dog!!!!

Rotary Information

Posted by Michael Knight on Aug 27, 2013

Peter Crozier presented this session, on the duties and responsibilities of the meeting rosters. Peter emphasised that the info was not just for new members, but also for long time Rotarians, who may have forgotten these parameters. The banter from the floor"is that why you're reading them". The list is reproduced here.

Today, we will touch on weekly meeting jobs

Fellowship – duties include

- Arriving early to ensure members badges are available
- When member arrives, find their badge and present it to them with a friendly "Welcome to Rotary"
- Ensure visiting Rotarians and club guests are welcomed and not abandoned. Introduce them to a few members
- INTRODUCE GUEST SPEAKER
- At the end of the meeting, gather badges of members who have not returned them

Reception - duties include

- Arriving early to assist the Treasurer in setting up the table
- Receive and document apologies, make-ups, names of guests, visiting Rotarians and partners of Rotarians
- Assist Treasurer with counting of money
- Seek three copies of names and apologies and distribute to Bulletin Editor, Secretary and Treasurer from commercial Club reception desk

Furniture- duties include

- Arriving early and procure Cupboard keys
- Furniture to be out before members arrive, especially badges
- Other furniture – club charter, flag and flagpole, bed pan for lucky draw, President's collar, fines box, theme banner, gift for guest speaker and lucky door prize
- THANK GUEST SPEAKER
- Return all furniture to the cabinets and keys to receptionist.
