Tuesday's Wollundry Meeting

President's Welcome

Posted by John Ferguson on Nov 19, 2013

President Phil welcomed 59 members and guests to Tuesday's meeting.

He paid special congratulations to Wollundry member, Wayne Jenkins who received the Premiers Award. This award recognises at the highest level Wayne's achievement in excellence for his teaching of Automotive Studies at the Wagga Campus of the Riverina TAFE. Congratulations Wayne!

President Phil went onto congratulate all members for their contribution to the community last weekend. He estimated a contribution of $5,000 to the community with the club's involvement in the erection and pull down of tents at the

Spinks, Doug
Sutton.

Poet's Day-Part 2

Posted by John Ferguson on Nov 19, 2013

Another highly entertaining session of English Poetry read by our three laureates; Graham Burmeister, George Thomas and John Hawkins. While George and Graham read from the sombre poetry of war by Rudyard Kipling and Edward Thomas, John entertained us firstly with "Stand & Stone" and then "The Wollundry Club Derby". The latter piece was read by the legendary race caller "Alan Dull". Well over a quarter of the club's members were mentioned in a mix of poetry and prose that would have had the stewards out and would make even Robbie Waterhouse and Fine Cotton appear to be innocent!!!

Liabe and censorship laws let alone space prevents its publishing.

Great entertainment gents and again illustrated the many talents of our members.

Sergeant's Session-Very Fishy!!!!

Posted by John Ferguson on Nov 19, 2013

The Sarg's Session was conducted by leading buccaneer, Dr Mark Sayer. Mark and a few of his Wollundry pirating mates had spent a week off the Great Barrier Reef fishing. There has been rumours of improper use of the Sarg's fines for the trip so all members were fined again.

Then followed an educational quiz called "Spot the Fish" where more fines were extracted from the members. The winner was Col Mercer who was presented with a frozen pack of fish fingers.

Past President, Doug Sutton gave a comprehensive and enlightening talk about the many famous world figures who have been Rotarians. These included:

- Franz Lehar, Austrain composer of the "Merry Widow".
- Former US Presidents, Warren Harding and Gerald Ford.
- Margaret Thatcher, British Prime minister.
- Sir Nigel Gresley, famous railway engineer. His steam locomotive, "Mallard" still holds the world record of 126mph for steam propulsion.
- English entertainer, Sir Harry Lauder.
- Admiral Richard Byrd, Polar aviator and explorer.
- Guglielmo Marconi, inventor of the wireless.
- Orville Wright, pioneer aviator.

Doug added that "The Four-Way Rotary Test" was scripted by Herbert J Taylor, a famous American industrialist as he set out to save his company the "Aluminum Products Company" from bankruptcy. He offered the test to Rotary in the 1940's when he was an International Rotary director. It was copyrighted in 1954. The test is used by Rotarians as a moral code for personal and business relationships, and can be applied for almost any aspect of life.

Sunday Markets 17th November

Posted by John Ferguson on Nov 19, 2013

OIC Pat Parnell had a very strong and willing team of 5.5 members for last Sunday's Markets which was held in brilliant sunshine. The team was Graham Barrow, Pat Ingram(making a welcome return after 10 years in the wilderness), James Ross, John Egan, Frank Fuller and Julian Beukers. Julian, a student from TRAC completing his Duke of Edinburgh Award, enabled the senior member of the team to take a well deserved early mark.

An unexpected but most welcome guest at the markets was well known entrepreneur and aviator, Dick Smith, AO. Dick was a guest of Geoff Breust and was astounded at the contribution which Wollundry makes to the Wagga community. Dick made a very generous donation of $50 at both the front and back gates.

RESULT:

Gate:	$914.60
Stalls:	$590.00
Adv Bookings:	$316.00
Trestles:	$ 68.00
TOTAL:	$1,888.60

Chairman Of the Sunday Market's Committee, Col Mercer announced:

RYPEN

Posted by John Egan on Nov 05, 2013

RYPEN is coming up.

John Hawkins and Darren Wallace outlined the details for the RYPEN which is being held at Borambola on 29th,30th Nov and Dec1st. There will be more than 50 kids attending from all around the District. The programme of speakers is outstanding and the young people should do very well! They are needing volunteers to spend some time with the kids, and one in particular to drive a 12 seater bus to and from Griffith to bring in attendees.
