Tuesday's Wollundry MeetingPresident's Welcome

Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

President Phil welcomed 55 members and guests to last Tuesday's meeting.

He welcomed back "Big" Jim Gibson fresh from his successful cricket tour of the "Old Dart" and Singapore, Treasurer, Peter MacKinnon and Geoff Hamilton from his "flying trip" to France. Ben Howard, Bob Willis and exchange student, Nelson Alverado were guests of the club.

Phil reminded us that D/G Geoff Tancred will be a guest at our meeting of 13th August and a board meeting is schedule for the morning of this meeting.

There will be a combined meeting with Junee and Coolamon Rotary Clubs at the Junee RSL Club at 6.30pm also on 13th August. Greg Conkey will be guest speaker while members of the Wagga City Rugby Male Choir will also perform. Greg gave us a great powerpoint of the tour to NZ and Tonga by the choir and this will feature in a future bulletin.

Mark Hillis would like names to him asap for the Sailing on Sydney Harbour weekend in October.

Andy Irvine spoke about renewals and changes to the Responsible Service of Alcohol cards. Members should contact James Ross for details.

Sergeant Creates History!

Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

Sergeant, Laurie Blowes not satisfied with his position as the "Lord Mayor of North Wagga" has now launched into a new career with the ABC as a "Media Watch" presenter. See him next Monday at around 9.30pm.

Laurie presented a powerpoint presentation and virtual fined every member, their family or their sporting connections for the past 12 months, if they had appeared in the Daily Advertiser. It was a record! Well done Laurie.

Nelson Moves Families

Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

Our Exchange Student from Peru, Nelson Alverado gave a comprehensive report on his week's activities. Only one member fully understood it and that was because Nelson delivered it in Greek! Thanks for the translation Michael, but I think it was definitely lost!

Evidently Chris Metcalf cried when Nelson moved families last week. What Nelson did not understand was that these were "tears of joy"!!!! Thanks to our new Greek Cypriot family for hosting Nelson.

Nelson congratulates our New Generation Director, Darren on his wine draw win!

Sunday Market- 28th July
Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

A great team of OIC, Paul Murray; Geoff Bruest, Paul Milde, Wal Patton, John Ireland, Alan Eldridge and Dennis Shean braved the elements last Sunday.

Results:

Gate	$596.20
Stalls	$260.00
Adv Bookings	$50.00
Trestles	$44.00
Power	$10.00
Total	$959.20

Carolyn Murray and Marie Egan brighten up an otherwise grey day at the Markets!

OIC, Paul provide us with a powerpoint of the day's activities which include the story of Alan Eldridge arriving late and then being kidnapped by a dog as he went around to collect the signs at the end of the day! Evidently a large dog, or as Alan related a very large dog mistook Alan's vehicle for his owners, jumped in the back and would not leave until found by the owner. Good story Alan, sure beats "the dog ate my homework".

Paul also produced a video of Wal Paton and Geoff Breust racing pedal carts. To see the video click on the screen below:

As an added attraction to the Sunday Markets, our Jumping Castle people have added Pedal Go-carts! The carts will be there most Sundays and are sure to be a crowd puller!

Tearaway Fastie Returns!

Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

Wollundry cricket legend, "Big" Jim Gibson returned from a very successful International Fellowship Rotary Cricket tour of the United Kingdom and Singapore. He is pictured with President Phil with the several Rotary Clubs' banners which the Australian team played against. Although soundly beaten in the warm up test in Singapore, Jim ignited the team with a brilliant performance of swing and pace in the UK, which had the current Australian coach, Darren Lehmann asking "where has this bowler been for the past 25 years!"

Jim thoroughly enjoyed his first IFCR experience and related a great story about the generosity of Rotarians worldwide. The Australian team decided to support the Bourne Rotary Club's project of providing a pottery kiln for the Sense Resource Centre for people with disabilities. The donation would be made by way of "tour fines" as imposed by "Sergeant of Arms", Arthur Manser. Fines plus Arthur raffling his "Bagging Green Cap" at Bourne Rotary Club raised a staggering amount of 1,100 pounds ($2,000). Well done to Jim and the team!

Welcome back to the Treasurer

Posted by John Ferguson on Jul 30, 2013

It was all smiles on the front desk on Tuesday as past treasurer Nick welcomed back current treasurer Peter from overseas. Nick was explaining to Pete that the "overseas trip is supposed to come after the year as treasurer!!!!"
