92 Years of service

“Hekka Night”

As always, the Chicken Hekka Social held at The Wailoa Park Pavilion on May 9th, was a great success. Many of the Rotarians brought their spouses as guests, and we also had a quite a few visitors. Alberta Dobbe brought Prosecuting Attorney Mitch Roth and his wife Noriko as guests, and Lorraine hosted her hubby Vern, visiting orthopedic surgeon, Dr. Ray Imatani, and Gil Silva and his wife. Sam Wallis brought his very own Geisha, wife Sandy, and everyone got a chance to visit with Donna Chalmers, guest of Cindy Boots. There were also some new youthful faces sharing in the fun: Lisa, Michael and Nicole. It seems that Lisa and Nicole had a chance to sit at the “Bad Boys” table last week Friday, and decided to come by and check out how our socials worked.

President Alan Kusunoki had to shout a bit to get the crowd settled down for a “Welcome”, and then called on Sam Wallis to lead the group through The Pledge to our Nation. Alberta furnished a nice quote for inspiration, and then Toshi Aoki helped get the cooking started by leading the tables to “fire up” the griddles.

As the chicken simmered, salad was passed and the warm sake flowed, shouts of Campai and Bonzai were heard from table to table. The food was great and camaraderie and fellowship was first class. A special Mahalo to the social committee (Toshi Aoki, Tom Brown, Tim Beatty, Dirk Yoshina, Corey Kawamoto, Stan Handy, Randy Hart, Cowboy Kaneshiro, Jerry Watanabe, Ed Hara, Slim McPherson and Tim's buddy Stan Haraguchi)
