The Weekly Review of the Rotary Club of Hilo

Oh YES!! It was a "Hekkava" Hekka Party! Members of the Rotary Club of Hilo gathered at the Wailoa State Park Pavillon to enjoy great food, fun and fellowship on Thursday evening, October 30th.

Many members brought their spouses and guests to share in this very "hands-on" event.

In the absence of President Richard Johnson, Tom Brown or an American Flag Corey Kawamoto did a wonderful job calling folks together to recite the Pledge of Allegiance to an "imagined flag" led by Alan Kusunoki.

Some came dressed up in their hopi coats in the theme of the party, and some came fully decorated to celebrate the Halloween's Eve night. No matter what, the "good spirits" abounded everywhere.

Alberta Dobbe was able to uplift the group with some inspiring words, and then Russ Oda took over to share a few "Halloween" laughs, and then helped folks figure out how to "get cookin'".

The crowd just turned on their hotplates, stirring while chatting, and of course, a few BONSAI and COMPAI toasts were made with the warm sake too. It was a very successful event in the sense that it did exactly what the whole of idea of a club social is meant to be, "a great way to get to know your fellow Rotarians and their families and friends".

Mahalo to everyone to participated, and to our Social Committee for once again pulling the event together right down to the clean up . Great Job!
