MARCH 27, 2015

94 Years of Service

Reporter: HRH

The Weekly Review of the Rotary Club of Hilo

President Richard Johnson officially welcomed all to the weekly meeting, calling on Helen Hemmes to lead us in the pledge of allegiance. Earlier, president-elect Wally Wong and Lisa Rantz greeted us with smiles and words of welcome.

Treena Breyfogle gave the words of inspiration. Since she's a leader in the Club's Brewfest on June 13, she chose quotations to inspire us to participate and volunteer:

For readers of the classics: "For a quart of ale is a dish for a king" (William Shakespeare's "A Winter Tale");

For historians, "Give my people plenty of beer, good beer, and cheap beer, and you will have no revolution among them" (Queen Victoria);

For humorists, "When I heated my home with oil, I used an average of 800 gallons a year. I have found that I can keep comfortably warm for an entire winter with slightly half that quantity of beer" (Dave Berry); and

For all, "Always do sober what you said you'd do drunk. That will teach you to keep your mouth shut." (Ernest Hemingway). Thanks, Treena!

President Richard recognized Tammy Silva, reporter, and Stew Hussey, photographer, for volunteering their talents for the March 20 issue of the Lava Flow.

Visiting Rotarians and Guests.

Lisa Rantz introduced the sole visiting Rotarian, Past ADG David Hurd from the Rotary Club of South Hilo; Frona and Tony Harris, the Club's guests; Christine Simmons, a volunteer with Frona and Tony Harris and Cindy Boots' guest, and Bob Hanley's guest, Donald Demuth, Jr.

Induction of New Member.

President Richard inducted Donald (Donnie) Demuth, Jr. into the Club as our newest member, calling on Bob Hanley to give him a Rotary pin. The Club welcomed Donnie with a standing ovation. (Donnie is a software engineer/instructor, and his classification is software development.)

Bequest Recognitions.

President Richard invited Rotarians who knew what the "Bequest Society" was to raise their hands. Yes, you all knew that members of the Bequest Society have provided in their will or trust the gift of $10,000 or more upon their demise to the Permanent Fund of The Rotary Foundation. The Club's newest members to the Bequest Society were then congratulated and recognized with special pins plus a crystal plaque on which the names were spelled correctly, per Kerry. Congratulations, and thank you, Susan Munro and Kerry Glass!

Announcements of Upcoming Events.

The March 20 Lava Flow has a superb listing of upcoming events, as does the Club's website at www.hilorotary.org. Check them out!

For starters, there is no meeting on Friday, April 3.

Rotarians are encouraged to sign up for Business Visitations on Friday, April 10, at four locations: the

about the Christmas tree initiative, Connie will give a tour of the screen printing and embroidering that goes into the making of local products, from start to finish, and Lisa promises a superb lunch thanks to the new chef at Hilo Medical Center. (Steve Handy's superb Subway sandwiches will be available at the other three sites for $10/Rotarian.) Please call or sign up with Biff Kennedy, Vocational Services Director.

It's also time to sign up to march in The Merrie Monarch Parade with other Rotarians on Saturday, April 11.

President Richard noted that the Club is nearing its FY2014-2015 goal of contributions to The Rotary Foundation. Per Alan Kusunoki, just one member more needs to give to the Foundation for the Club to reach its Every Rotarian Every Year (EREY) goal. Let's make it happen—by April 30 at the latest—with the member's donation and/or with the member's permission for someone to give in his/her name!

Four volunteers are needed to drive vehicles—and stay an extra night—at the Hilton Waikoloa for the District Conference at the Hilton Waikoloa, May 22-24. Contact Alan Kusunoki, who will be in charge of the Sergeant-at-Arms at the conference.

Tickets are now available for the Brewfest, with Misty encouraging Rotarians to sign up as corporate sponsors. Thanks, Nancy Cabral, for your "Keg" sponsorship ($3,000), and Cindy Boots, as "pint" ($500) sponsor.

Mike Robinson's $2 prompting resulted in President Richard's giving $5 to note that February is Literacy Month and that March is ... a special month.

Treena Breyfogle gave $20 for President Richard's sharing of his pruning skills on her fruit trees.

David Hurd gave $5 to state that he has tickets for his Club's Hilo Huli on Sunday, May 2. (Tickets are also available on line.)

Marcia Prose gave $5 to promote April happenings at the Palace Theatre, with copies of the monthly newsletter available for interested persons at the end of the meeting.

Kui Costa gave $100 for the pleasure of going with Steve Handy, Corey Kawamoto, and Cowboy Kaneshiro to Fiji for the Literacy Project and seeing just how much effort and personal resources go into making the trip a success. Her son went too. Thanks, Kui!

Program

Cindy Boots introduced our speakers, Fronda and Tony Harris, co-founders of the not-for-profit organization Heart Ranch. They shared just a little of their personal background, with Fronda noting that her father had been a Rotarian as had her husband, Tony. Fronda and Tony took a leap of faith in starting the program about four years ago and are pleased it now has 501(c) 3 status.

Our speakers stated they would be talking as technology wasn't cooperating; the brief video they had hoped to show was available on their website, www.HEARTRANCH.org.

Heart Ranch mission's is "to build Confidence, develop Leadership and Encourage Personal Growth in children and families." Heart Ranch is a mentoring program that works with youth ages 8 through 18 and their families at the ranch site on Akolea Road in Hilo.

Youth are paired one-on-one with a mentor for a 90-minute session for six consecutive weeks. The first thirty minutes consist of a chore activity, such as pulling weeds, and then time might be spent grooming, riding, and/or connecting with a horse. Horses, we learned, mirror emotions, and youth have to learn to draw healthy boundaries in the relationship with a horse—a skill that serves youth well for other facets of their lives. The mentoring program helps build social-emotional skills, self-awareness, and open communications.

The program is open Tuesday through Friday, starting in February and ending in mid-November. It's run by volunteers and by donations, though the agency got a grant in the amount of $10,000 last year to help build a larger tent area where family members can wait, interact, and even "nap" in the hammock while waiting for their youth.

Interested youth must attend an introductory meeting with a family member, and youth may come back after their first session as a "fill in." The program is advertised via word of mouth, though many youth are involved in organizations such as QLCC, Hale Kipa, Care Hawaii, and Easter Seals.

Frona and Jim's passion for working with youth and their understanding of the challenges that all parents face in raising children came through with their sharing of basic information as well as their touching stories of transformational moments between youth and mentor and youth and horse.

In Closing.

Nancy Cabral, who knows horses, thanked Fronda and Tony for their generosity, stating that "they are putting out a lot to make it happen" – just considering the feed bill and insurance costs alone!

President Richard called on Randy Hart to lead the Club in the 4-Way Test of the things we think, say, or do, and the meeting was adjourned.
