Rotary Projects in Puna and Pahoia

Gail Takaki, as the Rotary club head of Youth Services, spoke on the Interact activities in the high school and on the RYLA youth leadership awards.

The class of 4th – 8th graders had 24 students, with their parents and mentors. There were topics in the NexTech program presented by Rudy Castro, a NexTech student, a sophomore and future Air Force officer who talked about the robotics RTLA program at Sr. Joseph's school and discussed the RYLA leadership program. He also discussed leadership growth within RYLA and in an advances camp for younger students.

Francis Chun and Gabrielle Low presented a Rotary Youth Exchange program they have been in from Japan as part of our Student Exchange program with Japan. These students are part of the Youth Services program of our club that currently includes 55 members.
