THE KING RISES

No fines! KW1 is a good King! I guess at the Change Over Dinner, he will fall over dead from being stabbed by Lady Macbeth or he will just abdicate. It has been an interesting year in the kingdom to say the least.

PROGRAM

Andy Taylor introduced our Foreign Exchange student speakers, Holly Borsen and our own Lucas.

Holly began the program by speaking in Spanish. Thank goodness, she quickly changed to English! She presented a detailed experience of her year in Spain with pictures of her incredible family and the pilgrimage of her travels. She told us that she learned a language, to be independent, and to assimilate into a culture as a way of life. Most of all she made life long friends.

Lucas told us that he liked to talk rather than write. Can you imagine? He said he loved apple pie and dogs. He was so happy that all of his families had dogs for him to love. Lucas told us that he could eat an entire apple pie in one sitting.

We were treated to video pictures of Lucas jumping in the snow. He told us that there is no snow in Brazil. He showed videos of jumping into Kuaka Lake in early April. Burr.

Lucas love to travel! He was buried in corn, rode in an ambulance and was not sick! He thought pumpkin carving was interesting because the inside was so gooey. He also got lost in Time Square!

Lucas was a funny and bright exchange student and he will be missed by the Corning Rotary Club! God speed, Lucas!
