Rotary Connects the World 2020

The Rochester Latino Rotary Club (RLRC) is seeking nominations for the “Luisa Baars Service Above Self” Volunteer Award, “Dr. Constantino Fernandez” Volunteer Award and “Community Connector” Volunteer Awards to be presented at our 11th Annual Dinner/Dance Masquerade Ball on Saturday, April 25, 2020.

The Luisa Baars Service Above Self Volunteer Award recognizes a Rochester area Latino/a that dedicates his/her life to serving others. This is a person that takes initiative serving others and expects neither repayment nor recognition. He/She tends to work behind the scenes.

The Dr. Fernandez Volunteer Award recognizes a Rochester area Latino/a in the medical profession that has demonstrated through their volunteer work, a commitment to being a positive inspiration to others in their community, their family or in the lives of others in need.

The "Community Connector" Volunteer Award, which recognizes three Rochester area Latino/as that have demonstrated through their volunteer work, a commitment to creating meaningful connections with individuals and the greater community. Two awards are given to adults and one is given to a middle school or high school student.

The RLRC is a volunteer community service organization seeking to embrace the talent of professional and business Latinos and others who are interested in enriching the lives of local and world Latino communities.

Attached is the nomination form. Please send completed form by March 21st, 2020 to: Rochester Latino Rotary Club, PO Box 12562, Rochester, New York 14612. Attention: Awards Committee or email to veras.aida@gmail.com.

Please join us in honoring the Awards' Recipients at our 11th Annual Dinner/Dance Masquerade Ball on Saturday, April 25, 2020, and enjoy this exciting and fun event with us.
