TONIGHTS MEETING - 11 APRIL 2023

Tonight Willoughby City Council Mayor, Cr. Tanya Taylor, will join our President Norm in co-presenting the Pride of Workmanship awards to three successful nominees.

The Pride of Workmanship Award Scheme theme, which is consistent with its emphasis on the commitment to a job well done on the part of an employee, is;
“Do it Once, Do it Well - Build a Better Australia”.

A special program for the night will be available on the dinner tables with information about the POW awardees.

ATTENDANCE and APOLOGIES

You must complete the RSVP sender email response with your attendance/apology/guests for catering purposed and arrangements with the Golf Club. If you fail to apologise you will be charged with the cost of the meal. If you or any of your guests have any special dietary requirements please indicate on the RSVP response.

Also advise Avis on avis@amcomms.com.au

FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

During the last fortnight some of the activities of our club have reminded me of a duck floating on a lake. On the surface all is calm and serene but unseen under the water there is frantic activity to keep things moving and on course.

Because of recent changes in the revenue law in Timor-Leste it was necessary to enter into an up to date Memorandum of Agreement with the local Carmelite Sisters to clarify our mutual responsibilities to assist the program which, inter alia, provides dental care to remote and rural communities and supports dental workers with training and mentoring equipment and dental supplies. Many Australian dentists, and others, including the son of Andre Hariman, have, and continue to, provide their services on a pro bono basis to assist.

Sounds easy but the program has developed like Topsy over the years and although it works extremely well it required disciplined concentration and expertise to properly specify exactly what are the roles of all parties.

Peter Kindred supplied much information and Neil Howie demonstrated his remarkable legal drafting skills in producing the document which has now been signed by all parties and which, hopefully, satisfies the authorities in Timor-Leste.

Another frantic activity which has required many hours of discussion and involvement of several members of our club over recent weeks is whether or not our club can issue tax deductible receipts for some of the donations made to it. This was news to me because in my naivety I was under the impression that we were legally entitled to do so. [Should I amend my previous tax returns?] However, I now understand that this facility should only be given to organisations having the main purpose of a Public Benevolent Institution, otherwise many shonky operations would attempt to defraud the Australian Tax Office of revenue to which it is entitled.

I do not pretend to understand all of the ramifications of our club deciding whether or not we should proceed to register as a charity, especially as all of the correspondence I have read is heavily laced with acronyms, which I hate, including ATO, DGR, ACNC and PBI. [Heaven help the English language]. However, I sincerely thank those members of our club who have spent many hours grappling with the problem, and who continue to do so by face to face, zoom meetings, emails etc. That group includes Peggy Yu, David Williams, John Hartley, Peter Kindred, Neil Howie and Ross Symons. Neil Howie has once again brought his legal training to the discussions which are continuing. [Sorry if I have missed anyone].

No doubt further discussions at Board level and otherwise will result in recommendations which will be explained by others with more expertise than me.

However the calm movements of the duck were replaced by the dramatic waving of wings, and standing on the water, at the recent Bob Mudgan Primary School Public Speaking and Essay Competition held at the Killara Golf Club. As many of you have heard from me ad nauseum the ability to effectively communicate is one of the greatest abilities a person can have/develop. "The message sent is not always the one received". I am dismayed by the appalling "efforts" displayed by many of our so called "leaders", political, religious or otherwise to successfully explain what they are attempting to convey.

The amazing efforts of the eight contestants at our competition has confirmed my confidence in the youth of Australia and their ability to make a real contribution to the future of our country, [And the world.] with their power to effectively communicate their message. And they did it without the use of one acronym!

Further details of their remarkable performances are provided elsewhere in this copy of the Bulletin. I congratulate each and everyone of them and envy their ability to address a varied and unknown audience, partly consisting of foreboding "mature" people. I also thank their teachers and families that attended to give them support. [However I must admit my disappointment at the large number of club members who did not attend. Are we not interested in supporting the youth of our community?]

BOB MUGDAN PRIMARY SCHOOLS

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND ESSAY COMPETITION

In the words of President Norm, this was a “bonza”, “awesome” night, attended by 51 rotarians, partners, students and parents and school principals and teachers, where we heard some “incredible” public speaking and essays from the following 6th grade year students;

Public Speaking:

Lily Eves	Castle Cove Public School
Lucas Wong	Chatswood Public School
Isabella Wong	Roseville College Junior School
Siya Khanna-Boyles	Roseville Public School

Essays:

Justin Chen	Chatswood Public School
Chloe Yuan	Roseville College Junior School
Hamish MacPherson	Castle Cove Public School
Alice Petitat	Roseville Public School

Whether it was public speaking or essay writing, the 8 students presented high quality, well argued, written and spoken presentations and demonstrated a maturity for 6th graders in their researching, backgrounding and construction of their thoughts and arguments.

The winning students were;

Public Speaking Lucas Wong, Chatswood Public School
Essay writing Justin Chen, Chatswood Public School

Lucas’s address and Justin’s essay are included below, followed by a number of photos from the night.

Also included is an email and photos from Linda Ryan, Deputy Principal, Chatswood Public School, which was participating for the first time in the event.

Not forgotten for the night was Jason Chen’s (Justin’s younger brother) questioning MC Neil Howie on why the clock at the club (similar to the one above) is called a “Grandfather Clock” and why doesn’t its time change.

Surprisingly no one present offered an answer for Jason.

PUBLIC SPEAKING PRESENTATION BY LUCAS WONG

“The power of sports”

Good evening, ladies and gentlemen! My name is Lucas Wong from Chatswood Public School.

Today, I want to talk to you about something that's very close to my heart: sports. Have you ever watched a sports game and felt your heart racing with excitement? Well, my dad certainly has! He is a big fan of the NBA team, Los Angeles Lakers.

But have you ever seen opposing fans fighting each other? Unfortunately, that has happened to my dad too. He dislikes the fans of another NBA team, the Golden State Warriors. That's why I want to explore the question: Does sport bring us together or divide us?

Firstly, let's talk about the power of sports in bringing people together. When you're playing a team sport, you work with other people and get to know each other, resulting in lifelong friendships. I will always remember my first taekwondo match with a girl called Emily when I was 5 years old. She was the first girl to kick me down in my life, and she's also my first female friend. Even though we were opponents on the mat, we gained respect for each other and became friends after the match. This just shows that sports can help you make friends with anyone, regardless of gender or age.

But sports don't just unite individuals, they also unite cultures. Every culture has its own traditions, food, and languages, but when it comes to sports, the rules are the same for everyone. It doesn't matter if you're a pizza-loving Italian or a taco-devouring Mexican, everyone can get behind the thrill of the game. Whether it's soccer, basketball, or any other sport, any culture can play and enjoy sports together!

For example, during the Tokyo Olympic Games, athletes from all around the world came together to compete, but they also came together to celebrate each other's cultures. When two athletes bowed to each other and said “Arigatou gozaimasu,” which means “thank you” in Japanese after a match, everyone cried and clapped their hands so hard.

Finally, sports can even bring together countries that are at odds with each other. Take the example of the United States and Iran, who have been in conflict for a long time. But when they play soccer in the World Cup, they shake hands and even hug each other!

That's the power of sports to bridge political and cultural differences.

In conclusion, sports bring us together more than anything else. They help us make new friends, unite cultures, and even bring together countries.

So, the next time you watch a sports game, remember that it's not just about the score, but also about the power of sports to unite us all!

Thank you for listening, and let's play on!

(Bows)

"Arigatou gozaimasu

WRITTEN ESSAY BY JUSTIN CHEN

Social Media: Blessing or Curse?

Since the inception of our planet, humanity has constantly strived to push the boundaries of innovation, inventing remarkable technologies that have expanded our world's horizons. For example, in 105 AD, China's invention of paper revolutionised how we communicate, and to this day, it remains the most widely used writing material in the world. Similarly, in 1608, Galileo Galilei's invention of the telescope opened up new frontiers in our understanding of the universe, which has since been further explored and expanded.

In recent times, technological advancements have continued to shape our world in beneficial ways, and one of the significant developments has been the drastic rise in social media. In 1983, Motorola produced the world's first portable phone, which has transformed and upgraded to allow us to communicate and share information with people everywhere through social media platforms.

However, the impact of social media is a topic of ongoing debate. Whilst it has undoubtedly brought people closer together and enabled better communications and connectivity, there are countless concerns about its impact on mental health, privacy, and the spread of misinformation. Therefore, whether social media is a blessing or a curse remains a complex and nuanced problem.

One of the most significant advantages of social media is that it has revolutionised the way information is shared, offering a powerful platform for people of all backgrounds to express their views and experiences. In contrast to traditional media, where a select few control the dissemination of information, social media has enabled anyone to share their thoughts and ideas. The democratisation of information has opened up diverse perspectives and experiences, giving voice to previously marginalised groups and challenged dominant narratives. As a result, social media has become a crucial tool for promoting greater understanding, empathy and inclusivity, helping to build more equitable and just societies.

Despite its advantages, social media has mortifying effects, particularly on the mental health side of young people. Studies show that the pressure to present a positive image on social media can lead to anxiety and feelings of inadequacy. Additionally, social media addiction can result in excessive use and potentially harmful behaviours like cyberbullying. These negative consequences demonstrate the need for individuals to be mindful of their social media use and for platforms to take responsibility for creating safe and healthy online environments. By promoting responsible use and addressing harmful behaviours, social media can become a more positive and beneficial tool for connecting people and sharing information.

In conclusion, social media has had a crucial and life-changing impact on society, fostering connections and communications on an unprecedented scale. However, it is vital to recognise and address its potential detrimental effects, particularly on mental health and harmful behaviours. Responsible use and platform regulation are essential in maximising the benefits of social media whilst minimising its downsides. So ultimately whether social media is a force for good or evil depends solely on how individuals and society choose to use it, highlighting the need for critical thinking and responsible decision-making in this age of digital technology.

SUNKOSHI COMMUNITY DENTAL CLINIC IN NEPAL
Report from Rotary Club of Northlakes Toukley

(Provided by Peter Kindred)

Hi all,

Global Grant Report

I felt so proud to visit the Sunkoshi Community Hospitals new Dental Clinic in Nepal. Northlakes Toukley Rotary was the international partner to the Rotary Club of Rudramati, Nepal, who implemented the grant.

This grant would not have been possible without the support of Peter Kindred and the Kedje Foundation who funded this project. Also to Supid Koirala for his dedicated hard work in researching and writing the grant proposal.

The community hospital had ceased dental operations for 6 months due to poor equipment. In this time they self-funded the construction of the dental and eye wing. (See photo).

The dental clinic is divided into three sections. Office/Admin with two dental bays. One has a monitor and the other no monitor. I can not tell you how impressive this set up is and all concerned should feel very proud.

Currently there is a team out working in the remote areas doing a dental camp, where they are implementing an oral hygiene workshop and carrying out dental procedures whilst promoting the clinic. Photos will arrive shortly.

Congratulations everyone as this clinic will service 1000's of persons in this remote region.

The hospital treats up to 50 patients a week and has 11 staff and refers serious cases to bigger hospitals a hundred KIs away. Due to the hilly terrain, bus and car accidents are of concern. Last week 30 patients were seriously injured in a bus crash.

There strategic plan is to build an ICU unit on site and therefore, they are looking for further support

There is also an urgent need for defibrillators

A very big thank you from the staff at Sunkoshi Community Hospital.

THREE MEN AND THEIR WIVES

Three men married wives from different countries.

The first man married a woman from China. He told her that she was to do their dishes and house cleaning. It took a couple of days, but on the third day, he came home to see a clean house and dishes washed and put away.

The second man married a woman from Italy. He gave his wife orders that she was to do all the cleaning, dishes and the cooking. The first day he didn't see any results, but the next day he saw it was better. By the third day, he saw his house was clean, the dishes were done and there was a huge dinner on the table.

The third man married a woman from Australia. He ordered her to keep the house cleaned, dishes washed, lawn mowed, laundry washed, and hot food on the table for every meal. He said the first day he didn't see anything, the second day he didn't see anything but by the third day, some of the swelling had gone down and he could see a little out of his left eye, and his arm was healed enough that he could fix himself a sandwich and load the dishwasher.

ABOUT ROTARY

Paul Harris

The world's first service club, the Rotary Club of Chicago, Illinois, USA, was formed on 23 February 1905 by Paul Harris.

Rotary is a worldwide organisation of business and professional leaders that provides humanitarian service, encourages high ethical standards in all vocations, and helps build goodwill and peace in the world. More than 1.2 million Rotarians belong to over 35,000 Clubs in 210 countries and geographical areas. Rotary Club membership represents a cross-section of the community's business and professional men and women. The world's Rotary Clubs meet regularly and are non-political, non-religious, and open to all cultures, races, and creeds.

The Rotary motto is Service Above Self.

OBJECT OF ROTARY

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Australians all, let us rejoice,
For we are one and free,
We've golden soil and wealth for toil
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history's page, let every stage
Advance Australia Fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing
Advance Australia Fair.

ROTARY THANKS

For the community, friendship, and the opportunity to serve through Rotary, we give thanks.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
