FROM PRESIDENT DAVID'S KEYBOARD

Last week was a Club Assembly. PP Barry Henwood gave an information session as he explored the wonders of our new, and improved, website. How to navigate and make more practicable use of the website was helpful. See photo of Barry demonstrating his technical and master teaching skills with his long wooden pointer. Check out the website at gosfordrotary.org.au.

It has been just over 2000 years since the last miracle, but last Thursday we saw another. There were two card draws (due to being none last week) and PP Lester Marquet's number, 12, came up both times. First draw was the King of Spades, and the second draw was the JOKER. Lester has collected the $132 jackpot – ambulance on standby!

Geoff Vincent has confirmed details of the BBQ at Homeworld Warnervale at their opening on Sunday 29th September from 10am to 4pm. Geoff has a good number of volunteers and set up will be from around 8.30am. Address is 10 Virginia Road Warnervale – off the M1 along Sparks Road, past the airport, over the railway line, turn right into Virginia Road and you cannot miss it.

Bloomfest is off. Henry Kendall Gardens have told us that they already have other community groups selling food and drinks.

On the welfare front, Max Prince is recovering from his cellulitis and has been in hospital and hopes to see us again soon. Good to see Don Wiseman back from his short hospital stay, and Perla Griffiths recovering well from her recent illness while in the Philippines.

Heads and Tails was won by PP Dennis Allen who happily filled our glasses with some port.

Our planned Christmas Party for 12th December has been moved to 19th December.

The Golf Club had a school function for 100 on the same night, and thus to save a noisy conflict we have moved to the week after.

Tonight, our Vocational Director, PP David Nichols, is conducting the annual Apprenticeship Awards night, and all guests are welcome for a very rewarding night. Good to see PDG Christine Owen with us tonight.

President: David Boardman
