FROM THE PRESIDENT'S KEYBOARD

Very entertaining speaker 2 weeks ago - Chamundai Curran - The Laughing Lawyer.

Laughter is certainly the best medicine. Chamundai gave some practical examples of the benefits of laughing to reduce stress and improve health. All members joined in and already are benefiting from more laughter - whether Don is present or not!

Last Thursday members and guests attended the Youth in Performing Arts Concert at Laycock Theatre after enjoying a meal at the Hungry Wolf opposite the theatre. Another fantastic show with an amazing array of very talented young performers.

Red Shield volunteers, Geoff Vincent (both days), David Griffiths, Barry Henwood, Peter Moore, Jim Katrakalis, Dennis Allen, and myself over the weekend. Collected $5,183 at our Club's location in Wyoming.

REGIONALISATION UPDATE

At a recent meeting of Presidents of the Central Coast Rotary Community Group (RCG), three small groups were set up, one each for Projects, Membership and Publicity, with an aim to grow Rotary on the Central Coast. Next follow up meeting in early July will ensure that things start moving with progress and results expected soon.

Other ideas canvassed were a Central Coast RCG Christmas Party; and RGC Pride of Workmanship Awards in lieu of individual club awards.
