PRESIDENT’S REPORT

The Meeting of July 24 was a well attended event. After Rotary Grace, International Director David Griffiths toasted The Rotary Club of San Diego Downtown. This was followed by a delicious roast lamb meal, from Chef Mark.

FUN TIMES

Heads & Tails was won by Peter Moore. The Card Draw was won by Lester Marquet whom Members believed would win the prize, however, he drew the 6 of Diamonds. Lester then provided an informative Sergeants Session, which had an “on this day in history” theme! Thank you Lester!

SUPPORTING THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

PP David Boardman & Russell Stuart receive a Certificate of Thanks from Central Coast Womens

Health Centre, in recognition for the facilitation of funding of a new roof. Funding provided by the Trevor & Joy Hill Foundation (Grange Hotel).

You may recall our Scholarship for YIPA “Youth In Performing Arts” winner Megan Hansard. Here is Megan with her Mum & Dad, Kerry & Michael.

A WORTHY CAUSE

Special guest presenters for the evening were Sonja Simpson & Peter Rhenberger from Castle Hill Rotary, to speak about the project "Water For Kenya". This was well received by Members, with many questions from the floor. Having the shape of a backpack, the system works with the sun to deliver drinkable water from bore & "waterhole" catchments. There are many benefits with this type of system. Most obvious being that boiling water, & the resultant destruction of forests from this type of activity, is no longer a concern. Vote of thanks from Peter Moore.
