PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

What a wonderful day we had on Saturday entertaining our Senior Citizens at the Crows Nest Centre. We have now worked with the Crows Nest Centre to provide a Christmas Luncheon and entertainment for over 25 years.

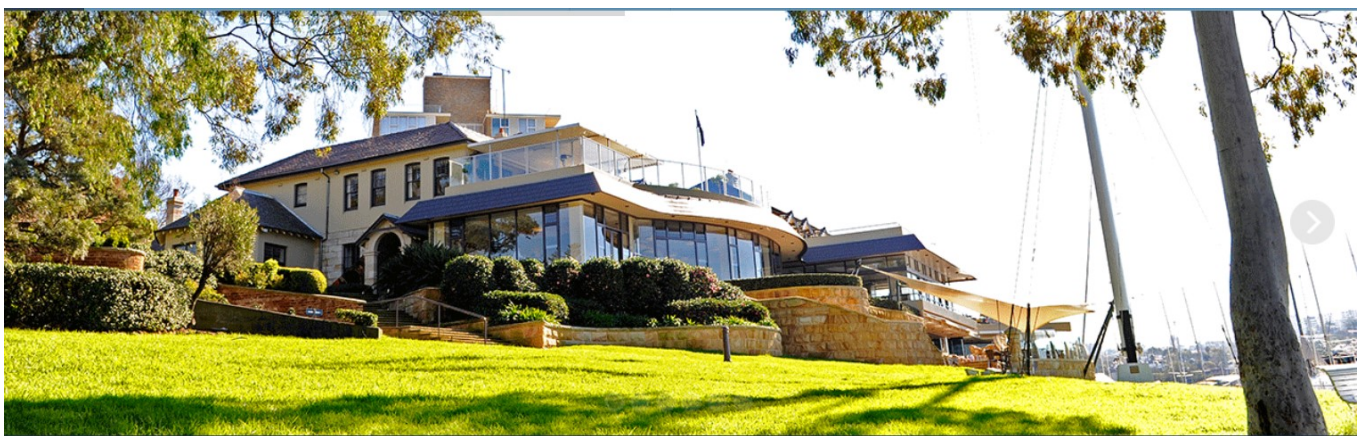

Many thanks for our members that helped along with partners, friends and of course Santa and David Field with his band of Tokens.

A selection of Photos is included in Cogs this week or/and next week.

Well, I am now counting sleeps until our BIG NIGHT ON AUGUST 16. If you have not made your booking with Jenny yet please do so immediately as we have to advise the Squadron of our numbers by Monday.

Hope you all enjoyed your day off last Thursday and I look forward to seeing you all on Thursday.

Humour by Geoff Pritchard

Mom and Dad were trying to console Susie, whose dog Skipper had recently died.

"You know," Mom said, "it's not so bad. Skipper's probably up in Heaven right now, having a grand old time with God."

Susie stopped crying and asked, "What would God want with a dead dog?"

A prospective juror in a Dallas District Court was surprised by the definition of voluntary manslaughter given the panel: "An intentional killing that occurs while the defendant is under the immediate influence of sudden passion arising from an adequate cause, such as when a spouse's mate is found in a 'compromising position.'"

"See, I have a problem with that passion business," responded the jury candidate. "During my first marriage, I came in and found my husband in bed with my neighbour. All I did was divorce him. I had no idea that I could have shot him."

She wasn't selected for the jury.
