President's Message:

Dear Rotarians,

I hope you enjoyed the zoom meeting with guest speaker Joe Hockey. It was interesting to hear his thoughts on his Australian Ambassador's life in the USA and the various people he met. Joe has obviously met a variety of business people to support his new business introducing Americans to Australia and vice versa. As this was our first zoom meeting all together I was very happy with the result and I hope you were too.

We voted to have a zoom meeting every 2 weeks at the same time until we can meet face to face.

I have committed our club to the proposed local cluster dinner on the 23rd November at the Roseville Golf Club to raise funds for Rotary Health. Our club will be in charge of the raffle on the night! I thought this would be one of the easiest jobs!! We are expected to provide one good auction item. So please diaries' the date now!

I hope some of you may have viewed the Collide videos I sent during last week. There has been much excitement amongst the students and the winners will be announced during BOOK WEEK next week. I would like to offer our sponsorship again in 2022. Our club has been given much publicity.

SERVE TO CHANGE LIVES

President's Message: continued..

Thank you to everyone for 100% payment of dues. The treasurer is very happy.

I am trying to organise a zoom meeting with Rancho Mirage in California...the time zone is proving a little difficult.

Rotary Health is promoting HAT DAY in OCTOBER ...hopefully we can join on zoom or face to face. And to promote Rotary membership a BRING A FRIEND DAY may be a fun thing to organise too!

Now this Thursday our guests will be DG Lindsay May, ADG John Zhang and Jade Catterel.

This is the DG's annual visit to our club. I hope all members will be present.
