President's Message:

President Geoff & Joan are enjoying a well earned break by spending time on the high seas on a suitably sized ship sailing the southern parts of Australian and across the Great Australian Bight to Fremantle. They return in two weeks.

Last week's guest speakers, our own Toni & David Field, were able to enlighten us on their recent holiday to Hawaii, linking up with daughter Emily & husband Dan and their children, to enjoy each other's company at this idyllic holiday destination.

The grandchildren having spent time at Aspen prior to their meeting up in Hawaii had to adjust from snow skis to surfboarding but this didn't seem to be any problem. Young Charlie even found fame by landing a marlin of some size, deep sea fishing being one of many of the family's holiday pursuits.

Toni & David enjoyed some peace and quiet around the pool and dining out at the various restaurants. An expensive part of the world for a holiday historically and from all accounts nothing has changed.

I can report that Pig on a Spit held last Saturday at Fern Valley Ranch Somersby was an unqualified success. Our thanks go to the Lee family for hosting this wonderful International Fundraiser event. A full report in next week's COGS.

For this Thursday's meeting we will hear from JT on the 2022-23 Sydney to Hobart and an update on Sailability.

Cheers

PP Denis
