President's Message:

Hello Rotarians.

It's been a busy Rotary week all over Australia this week. The Rotary International Convention has been held in Melbourne and now the overseas delegates are spreading themselves around our countryside with reports from Tumbarumba that they have a couple of carloads attending their meeting tonight (Monday). Many delegates are in Sydney due to it coinciding with Vivid. Joan and I are having a dinner party tonight (Monday) to meetup with some Rotarians from Wisconsin. At Dominic Williams' wedding yesterday I have never met so many Past District Governors at a single function. Dom of course was responsible for introducing MUNA to Australia along with other Rotarians from the central west.

I was glad to hear from the members in attendance at last week's meeting that we all seem to agree with premise that we forget about any merger for the time being and power ahead into the new Rotary year with a lot of progressive ideas.

This week we will have the MUNA team from Shore School to tell us about their MUNA experience last month and next week we have Kate Kutty from The Wayside Chapel to update us about Wayside who are one of our benefactors of The Tree of Joy.
