Paul Harris Fellow Recognition Meeting

In view of November being Rotary Foundation Month and following recent tradition, your Board determined that November 21st will be a formal partners night for us to recognise past and newly acknowledged Paul Harris Fellows.

It was also decided that Rhonda, Graham J and myself will make recommendations of people our Club should so recognize, and I would appreciate you all giving it some thought and make suggestions to us confidentially, of members or people in the broader community who you believe are worthy for consideration.

AUSTRALIAN ROTARY HEALTH

Last week, we donated $84.20 to Australian Rotary health for Hat Day- raising the lid on mental illness- by throwing our hats into the ring.

Did you know that Australian Rotary Health began in 1981 when Ian Scott, a member of the Rotary Club of Mornington, Victoria envisaged a monetary fund raised by Australian Rotarians to provide funds for research – initially into cot death.

And so this national community service came into being and has now allocated almost $35 million to research, awareness and education. The focus of research grants is currently “The Mental health of Young Australians”. ARH provides research project grants for up to 3 years, PhD scholarships into general mental health and Post Doctoral Fellowships with a focus on prevention of mental health disorders. It is the largest provider of research grants into mental health in Australia.

When Anne Egan was DG, Jeff chose as his partner project Indigenous Health Scholarships worth $5000 each, funded jointly by Rotary Clubs and the Government to encourage indigenous people to become health professionals, ultimately providing better health care in remote areas.

Marion and Graham heard one of these awardees speak at the recent Zone Institute in Darwin.

DG Darrell wants to raise $33,000 for a scholarship with ARH and our contribution from last week will go towards that. Hopefully, we can add to that before the end of the Rotary year.

Donations are tax deductible if anyone wishes to make a personal donation.

Marion
