Rotary's special months

February is . . .World Understanding Month

This month is the anniversary of the very first Rotary meeting – February 23, 1905. It also gives us a chance to promote the Fourth Avenue of Service – goodwill, peace and understanding among people of the world; and embrace the broad mission of Rotary: “peace through service”.

GUEST SPEAKER: Sarah Wood
TOPIC: Being a Buddy at Handicamp

Sarah has just completed her first year – of a 3 year nursing degree at Notre Dame in Fremantle. She also runs a Girl Guide unit for 5-11 year olds. She loves helping people and when she was introduced to Handicamp through her older sister, Rachel, she threw aside her nervousness to apply to become a buddy. Luckily for us the dates fitted in with her uni timetable.

Sarah and other buddies were given an orientation prior to meeting their campers. Sarah's camper's name was Ashleigh, who according to her mum, takes awhile to get ready to start the day. Sarah and Ashleigh shared accommodation with two other girls – Claire (another buddy) and Louise (another camper). Sarah and Louise made sure both campers were well and truly ready for the day by setting an alarm nice and early each day.

The activities during the week included bowling, visiting the zoo, archery, water sports, going to Adventure World, taking on the flying fox and abseiling; karaoke and attending the Ron Sloan Mad Hatter's Dinner.

Sarah was really pleased that her camper Ashleigh was willing to join in on most of the activities and thoroughly enjoyed them. Despite a reluctant start on the water biscuit she took to it and could not wait for her next turn.

Ashleigh's Mum was really grateful for what we had given to Ashleigh during the week, and was very surprised at how excited Ashleigh was to tell her all about it.

Sarah was overcome by how truly awesome and wonderful the people are that bring the whole camp experience together – the campers, the buddies, and the organising committee. She felt really supported during the week and is keen to do it again.

A suggestion she made was to make contact with the universities to get more volunteers to assist in future camps.

Thanks Sarah for giving us an insight into your time as Buddy at Handicamp 2017.

POWERBALL WINNER

Haven't got the latest winners because Peter is away and he has the information.
