What's on this coming Week:

On Tuesday 30 October 2018 our guest Speaker is Elizabeth Edmondson who will be talking about her experience as a Paralympian.

Haidee Dodd one the students who attending RYPEN will also be at the meeting to talk for a few minutes about her time at the camp.

Member's and partners favourite sandwich fillings:

Michael Metcalf – Apples and Sultanas

Stephen Kendall – Jam and Cheese (Note he didn't get that from his mother)

Michael Evans – Beetroot and Vegemite

Joanna Kendall – Grated Carrot and Vegemite (picked this habit up when father brought a jar of vegemite back from Australia to England)

Gwen Evans – Cheese and Apple Sauce

Gren Courtland had a favourite desert – Mulberries and condensed milk.

We didn't just spend all the time talking about food. Michael Metcalf gave told a few amusing stories about his time as a Customs Office.

Gren chipped in with some stories from his time in national services in the Navy. He reckons it was the best holiday he has ever had.

Gren and Michael said they are both writing their family story so one day we may all have the pleasure their books.

Overall you may think you facts about people you have known for a long time but sometimes they surprise you with something new.
