BULLETIN 2019 - 20

Volume 51-8 October 8th, 2019

Bricktober 12th & 13th October

Mike Bermann re-iterated important points for the day, from volunteer coordinator Ann Bermann.

- Ann will send out a package to all volunteers explaining their role on the weekend coming up.
- At present there are 109 volunteers so each sessions, catered for.
- One important message: problems arising, should be directed to Ann or Mike Bermann.
- Stephen and Joanna Kendall, exhibitors only for this event. Please do not contact them to deal with problems.
- A reminder to all volunteers including Rotarians and partners:

On arrival at Bricktober on Saturday or Sunday please check in with Ann Bermann, and check out with her, when leaving the venue.

The club is hoping that Bricktober will be more than a fantastic Lego display!

To that end, Ascot Club hopes the public will become more aware of the work done by Rotary, with benefits to both our local community and overseas projects resulting from Rotary's work.

A Rotary stand will be in the venue to highlight these contributions: Rotary Making the World a Better Place.
