Jack Blasco President 2017/2018:

"All the News that Fits We Print"

BEFORE THE BELL

The sun was shining strong over the lovely community of Sebastopol. Fellow Rotarians gathered at the Roto-Palace for another gathering of the Rotary Club of Sebastopol.

Thought for the Day

- Ken Silveira

"It's not that I'm so smart; it's just that I stay with problems longer."

-Albert Einstein

"The difference between a successful person and others is not a lack of strength, not a lack of knowledge, but rather a lack of will."

-Vince Lombardi

President Jack Blasco struck the hearty Rotobell at 12:15 on the dot. Harry Simms led the group in the flag salute. Rick Wilson gave the group a musical treat today. He led the club in a rousing, and somewhat on-key version of Love Potion Number Nine. Ken Silveira offered a two for one thought of the day; one from a genius (Albert Einstein), and one from a jock (Vince Lombardi).

VISITORS AND GUESTS

Bud Daviero informed the President that there were no visiting Rotarians today. Perhaps the call of the ninth fairway was too strong to Keller McDonald introduced his guest, Ray Leonard, a candidate for the County Clerk, Assessor, and Recorder. Pauline Pellini introduced two Interact club members from Brookhaven School. Jim Passage introduced the guest speakers, Dan Needham and Bob Dorothy Rodella introduced her surprise quest, her brother from another mother, Langley (Bob's guide dog).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Jack shared his thanks and gratitude to everyone who helped and participated at the Crab Feed. Jack thanked all of the committee members, and gave special thanks to Crab Feed co-chairs Scott Briggs, and Nao Noguchi. Receipts and expenses were still being tallied, but Jack noted that the record might have been broken. Stay tuned.

The Super Bowl Board yielded many winners. Torrey Olson and Aleia Coate announced the winners, which were plentiful. Ten members won $10. Nao Noguchi and Bud Daviero won the special gold tickets. Here are the top winners:

Mike McGlothlin 1st Q Ruthie Dunlap 2nd Q Richard Power 3rd Q Mark Stevens 4th Q

Harry Polley stepped up to the lectern to announce new Paul Harris Fellow recognitions. Paul Yeomans was given his PHF+3, which is dedicated in the memory of his parents, George and Jean Yeomans. The following people also received Paul Harris Fellow Recognitions:

Cindy Carter-Flamm: PHF +1

David Still: PHF +1

Ellen Harrington: PHF +1
Robin Maybury: PHF +1
Ruthie Dunlap: PHF +1
Jim Passage: PHF +3
Jack Dunlap: PHF +6
Tom Lambert: PHF +6
Dave Madsen: PHF +8

Gene Nelson informed the club of an exciting chance to experience an evening of Broadway on March 25th. The well-respected theater group, Transcendence, will be presenting Ladies of Broadway at the Luther Burbank Center in Santa Rosa. The March 25th performance is Rotary Day, where tickets will be 15% off. Fear not, if you cannot make it on the 25th, you can still catch Transcendence at the District Conference in May.

Barbara Beedon and Ruthie Dunlap announced a fun new twist with the Friendship Dinners. Will the mystery guest please sign in! Not only will each dinner feature a mystery guest, but the dishes attendees bring will not be revealed until two days prior! Two dinner sets are scheduled, one for Saturday, March 17th and the other Saturday, April 21st. Pro tip, Bob Sonnenberg would love to attend a Friendship Dinner. Sign up now, friends!

Hey kids, what time is it??? IT'S RAFFLE TIME!!!! President Jack was in great form this Friday afternoon. People were clutching the ends of their seats, their tickets and their nerves, hoping and praying their number would be called. Jerry Warren! C'mon Down! Jack slapped a quick five spot in Jerry's left hand, and placed the patented trick darts in his right. Would Jerry outwit Jack's darts that defy the laws of gravity? YES! A blue balloon bit the dust, earning Jerry $10! Jerry fought the temptation to reach into Uncle Jack's Bag o' Crap, and walked away $15 richer. Remember folks, the more you play, the more we pay!!!

RECOGNITIONS

We learned that Diana Rich had a birthday on January 24th. All Diana could remember was that she had a great dinner. Hope you saved $5. Brad Benedetti hit the big seven-o on February 4th. He spent his birthday in Los Angeles. Brad, hope you brought back $5! We learned that Rollie Atkinson had a birthday on February 11th. He had planned a candlelight dinner, but the food did not get cooked. That will still cost you $5. February 11th was also Kathie Mayhew's big day. Kathie celebrated the day with a nice dinner with Frank out in Bodega Bay. $5 please! Norm Stupfel and his wife Judy celebrated their anniversary on February 5th. Unfortunately, a cold bug gave Norm and Judy an un-wanted anniversary gift. However, after eradicating the bug, they made a trip down to San Francisco. Norm, you might have left your heart in San Francisco, but we hope you didn't leave the $5 fine there!

Rollie Atkinson was recently crowned as a mentor! Upbeat Times CEO, Publisher, and Founder Paul Doyle named Rollie as one of his mentors. He acknowledged Rollie as someone who is laid back, has a great sense of humor, was committed to the community and devoted to reporting the news truthfully. We couldn't agree more, Paul! Rollie mentioned he hired Paul 30 years ago, and considers him a great guy. Rollie, all mentors are automatically fined $20!

Sue Engle, your delivery van needs a bath, stat! Somebody snapped an incriminating picture of Sue's van. We hope the dirty van is a result of being too busy delivering flowers and happiness to people throughout Sebastopol. Unfortunately, Jack could not levy the dirty automobile fee on Sue, as her dues are paid in full.

THE PROGRAM

Jim Passage introduced the guest speakers, Dan Needham, CEO of the Earle Baum Center, and Bob Sonnenberg, from Guide Dogs for the Blind. Dan spoke about the services they offer to individuals in Sonoma County who suffer from sight loss. The center offers a clinic specifically for those with low vision. They offer group and individual counseling services to those who have sight loss. They offer classes to individuals who recently experienced sight loss, and how to cope with it. They offer classes that teach those with sight loss how to use technology. They teach those with sight loss how to travel safely, with the aim of giving those with sight loss greater confidence and independence. They teach those with sight loss shopping, financial, cooking, and household skills. They offer courses in braille reading and writing. They also offer an active community center where those with sight loss can learn new hobbies, exercise, take field trips, and socialize. Dan encouraged everyone to stop by for a tour. More details can be found online at earlebaum.org.

Bob Sonnenberg works for the Development Department at Guide Dogs for the Blind, where he is involved with their planned giving and major donations team. Bob's vision loss happened suddenly. One day, while driving to Sacramento, he could not see or read the highway signs. Myopic Degeneration caused his vision loss. Despite the vision loss, Bob loves tandem bicycle riding.

The group had many questions and observations. Linda Johnson shared a story from her school days. She was asked to spend three days with a blind person. The experience was extremely effective and made her realize how different life is for those with impaired sight. Richard Power asked if the guide ropes are still at the center. Dan informed us that the guide ropes are indeed, still there. A group of Eagle Scouts constructed the ropes, which are still a great benefit to the users. Henry Alker asked what the Earle Baum Center's annual budget is, and where their donations come from. Dan shared that their annual budget is $1.5 million. However, their funding from government sources continues to diminish, forcing them to rely more heavily on private donations. Bob shared that private donors are his main area of focus. Diana Rich asked how we could help. Bob asked people to grab one of the brochures, and for people to visit the Earle Baum website: earlebaum.org. District Governor Bob Rogers shared a fundraising event the Rotary Club of Napa is holding on April 21st: "Cycle for Sight." The funds raised will benefit two organizations in the Napa Valley who assist those with sight loss.

With a hearty whack of the Roto-bell at 1:30PM precisely, President Jack brought another meeting to a close, and, as ever, enjoined us with "If you don't like what's going on in the world, go out there and fix it".
