"All the News that Fits We Print"

BEFORE THE BELL

Sebastopol Rotarians gathered at the Sebastopol Center for the Arts beginning at 5pm on June 30, 2018 for the formal and long-awaited debunking of the Presidency of Jack Blasco. President Jack himself, stuck in a wheelchair due to recent surgery, waited in vain to be carried in on a litter or perhaps an elephant. He rolled in instead.

Suitable lubrication was available to the crowd including wine of many colors and a Margarita with a secret ingredient (Toxic Waste???). Aleia Coate and Matt Munson were behind the bar and working hard. Photographers were snapping pix. Scribe trying to remember what happened.

🍎 AT THE BELL 🍎

At the appropriate hour, the famished crowd lined up and filled their plates with delicious Mexican specialties from Mario Ramos and the Mexico Lindo Kitchen. How often do you get to serve yourself all the delights you can eat?

With everyone sated, the crowd slowly moved the flan plates aside and sidled in to the auditorium. What? Someone gave Jeff Boal a microphone? Does Rotary International know about this? It turns out Jeff Boal was tonight's emcee and he is fully versed in the RI rules for a Proper Debunking. He thanked everyone for coming out – complaining about his compensation package.

Jeff thanked Ellen Harrington for the decorations. He brought Mario out of the kitchen for a well-earned round of applause. He thanked Jack's family for coming. They included Marie (First Lady) Blasco and children Peter Blasco, Mark Blasco, and Grace Montgomery.

Jeff then called upon Gene Nelson for the invocation – light on theology and long on praise – to everyone's satisfaction.

🍎 RECOGNITIONS 🍎

Departing President Jack Blasco was wheeled to the mike and proceeded to give thanks. Jack said that he struggled with the "Rotarian of the Year Award" and finally decided to give it to two Rotarians: Ellen Harrington, for her tireless volunteerism, and Hal Kwalwasser, for his work in both media matters and youth programs.

Not done with thanks, Jack also awarded a new award which he may have pulled out of his Bag of Good Stuff just for the occasion. This award – designated the "Keeping the Wheels on Award", went to four deserving Rotarians: David Schreibman, Mia Del Prete, Tom Boag, and Jim Pacatte. Way to go Guys – Well Deserved.

And before signing off – Jack thanked his long-suffering wife – Marie Blasco.

🍎 THE PROGRAM 🍎

At this point the lights dimmed and the audience was treated to a magnificent tribute to President Jack entitled "You Don't Know Jack". Actually, magnificent tribute might be an overstatement – Roast also captures it.

Unknown to Jack, a hidden camera followed him to Burning Man last year and recorded some of his deepest thoughts. Very Impressive.

Following the hidden camera episode, we were taken back in time to when Jack was a mere high school student seeking guidance from his high school counselor. Did you know Jack could have had a promising career as a TV weathercaster? Or a Used Car Salesman? Jack also has incredible Rapping skills which took most of us by surprise.

With luck our crack AV Team will post some of this stuff on line and those who missed it can find out that they too, "Don't Know Jack".

INTRODUCTIONS

The Reign of Terror Ends!

House lights up – New Incoming President Larry Ford was introduced and given one minute to address the group. (Really that's what the outline said, one minute) Larry introduced his incoming Board of Directors: Aleia Coate, Lu Frazier, Jim Passage, Peg Rogers, Hal Kwalwasser, Ken Jacobs, Jack Dunlap, Keller McDonald (President Elect), and Jack Blasco (Past President).

Keeping within his one-minute time constraint proved easy for President Larry.

A final shout out and thank you was given to the people who put on the Debunking including: Dan Rasmus, Aleia Coate, Patrick Dirden, Ken Jacobs, Robin Maybury, JT Martin, Linda Puccinelli, Aldean Noethig, John Blount, Jeff Boal, Paul Thielen, and Debunking Committee Chair Ron Puccinelli.

THE FINAL BELL

And at 8:20 pm Jeff Boal rang the Bell.

FUTURE PROGRAMS

JULY 6, 2018 -- Alison Bies -- Artstart

Alison Bies attended California College of the Arts, in Oakland, CA. Along with various jobs, she has always based her goals on her artistic endeavors, attending Revere Jewelry Academy and the Gemological Institute of America. After working in the public art arena with her late husband Robert W. Ellison in Penngrove for 12 years, Alison moved to an island on the coast of Maine where she wrote and also did drawings for a Maine based coloring book. On her return to Sonoma County, she began to work for Artstart as their administrative coordinator.

July 20, 2018 – Susan O'Sullivan – Filoli Estate

Susan O'Sullivan is the director of development and external relations at Filoli, an historic country estate and public garden located in Woodside, California. Susan has been at Filoli for eight years in different capacities, including management responsibility for Filoli's 175,000 visitors per year, 10,000+ members, and 700 volunteers. In her current role she oversees Filoli's fundraising, marketing and publicity efforts. Susan loves sharing Filoli with the Bay Area community and feels that everyone can benefit from a day of respite, surrounded by beautiful gardens and nature.
