All the News that Fits We Print

At the Bell

President Aleia rang the bell at noon, and welcomed everyone to our meeting on a doubly momentous day..... Veteran's Day and 11.11.11. The Flag Salute was lead by Ken McHugh, followed by our singing of "God Bless America", this week's choice, coming from musical genius and cameraman, J.T. Martin.

Sally Ewald presented our Thought for the Day, and it was a good one! Because of the day, and in remembrance of all the Veterans of all wars, she read the iconic – and touching – poem, "In Flanders Fields". Sally and her guests have a special connection to that poem, a story that came out in pieces throughout the meeting. For those who would like to read the poem by John McCrae, here's a link to it, and the story of its author, from the "In Flanders Fields Museum" website:

<http://www.inflandersfields.be/#gedicht>

Visiting Rotarians and Guests

Bud Daveiro introduced Visiting Rotarians Ed Smith, President Elect of the Russian River club, category Property Maintenance, and friend Terry Kelley, Executive Director of the Sebastopol Senior Center, from the Sebastopol Sunrise.

The third visiting Rotarian was also David and Sally Ewald's guest, so Sally fleshed out the introduction on Marcel Bauters, and his son-in-law, Wouter Tack (not yet a Rotarian), both from Gent (also spelled Ghent), Belgium. Marcel has been a Rotarian for 38 years. He explained that in Gent, and throughout Europe, everyone truly remembers and honors all of the young men who died for our freedom. His father-in-law fought in the battle in Ypres, Belgium, which is about 80 miles SW of Gent, and nearer to Dunkirk. Before the war, it was a beautiful medieval town, and is the home of the "In Flanders Field Museum".

Sally and Marcel were so enthusiastic in their telling the story that Sally forgot to introduce her other guest, husband David. Well, I guess under the circumstances, that was understandable.....

Other guests were Dan Rasmus' daughter, Jane; Mike Long's father-in-law, Frank Dutra; Ken McHugh's wife, Marilyn; and Troy McAdams' father, Ken.

Diana Rich introduced Katie Kasben, Events Coordinator at Copperfield's, Sebastopol.

🍎 Announcements 🍎

Steve Prandini reminded everyone about the Club's Annual Holiday Party, Saturday, December 10th, from 5:30–8:30, at the lovely home of Pete and Pauline Pellini. It's a potluck, so please bring an appetizer or dessert. (See attached flyer.)

Foundation Moment"

Mike Ferguson made a couple of Foundation "educational" announcements. For anyone who is interested in researching their Foundation information, it is all available on the RI Foundation website. To do this, all you need to have is your Rotary ID number, which is located on the label of your "Rotarian" magazine every month. It used to be that you had to go through your Foundation Chair to get any information, but you don't need Mike for that at all! This was met with applause.

Also, another way the Rotary Foundation has made giving more accessible to everyone is by creating payment plans. You can set up a payment plan that works for you, so you can "painlessly" give a potentially larger gift than if you had to write a check for the whole amount all at once. President Aleia can vouch for how well this works, as she is on the $20 a month plan, and it's painless! You can also check that out when you go to The Rotary Foundation site (TRF) at Rotary.org.

Mike also reminded everyone to buy your Foundation Raffle tickets. The drawing will be held on November 30th, and the potential grand prize is an iPad! The Trip to Bangkok raffle, drawing will also be held on November 30th.

Mike thanked everyone again for being so generous with your time and treasure to support the Rotary Foundation. As announced by DG Maureen at last month's meeting, we have met and exceeded our goals for the first quarter, but we can't stop now, because there are 3 more quarters to go!

Other Announcements

Bob Rogers called a World Community Service committee meeting after today's meeting.

Frank Mayhew announced that Palm Drive Hospital is interviewing Marin General for a possible alliance of the two hospitals. To get more information, or to come to the public hearing, it will be held next Thursday (November 17th), at 6:00 pm, at The Community Church Memorial Hall, where our regular Rotary meetings are held.

Recognition...and...FINES

Birthdays:

Steve Beck, October 20th - Steve took a trip to Sedona, Arizona, where he went hiking, saw the Grand Canyon, Flagstaff, and sampled local wines. Sounds pretty good for $5!

David Schreibman, November 8th – Got birthday wishes through his Facebook page, and had lunch with his mother and dinner with his family. $5

Dan Rasmus, November 10th – had dinner with Fran, but also spent time in the Midwest. (Huh?) $5

Anniversaries:

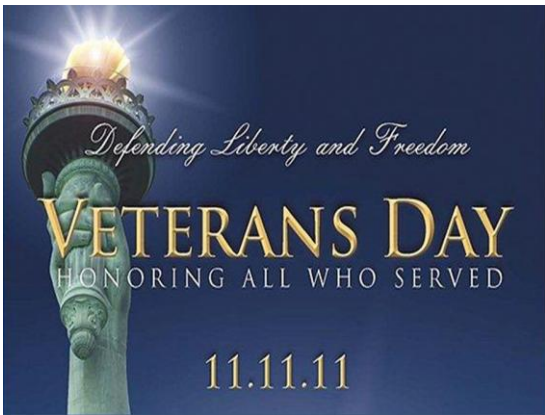

David and Nan Still, November 4th – They celebrated their 39th by taking the train (and bus) trip to Fresno to visit with their daughter. David said the train was wonderful – clean, on time, and a restful way to take a trip! $5

Bob and Julie Cugini celebrated their 23rd anniversary on November 5th with a fun and delicious day in San Francisco. $5

Other Special Recognition:

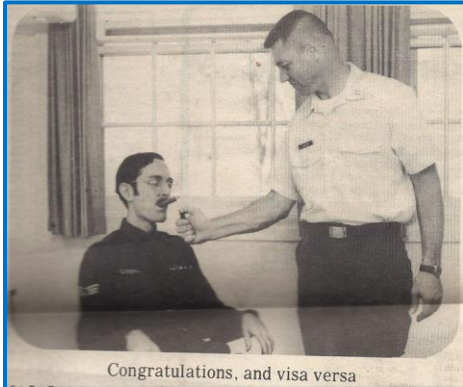

Bob Cary was recognized for the trip he and Brad Benedetti took to Canada on their motorcycles. President Aleia acknowledged that they had already talked about the trip, but she really likes the photographs, so she wanted to show them again! Besides, $15 is a bargain for 5,000 miles on a bike!

Veterans Day Recognition – Sebastopol Rotary Veterans

President Aleia did a fabulous job of obtaining photos of members of the club when they were in their service to the country, and she went through them in no particular order. It was fun to see what y'all looked like in uniform! All kidding aside, thank you all for your service, and loyalty to our country!

Don't Forget the Raffle !

We almost did, but Troy McAdams is glad we didn't. No jackpot, but took home a nice bottle of wine.

PROGRAM

Our speaker today, Ezbon Jen, was introduced by Bob Boyd, who has known him for many years. With an introduction that fills 2 pages (really!), Dr. Jen has had an incredibly diverse life – one in which his service to others has been the driving force behind everything he has done. Here's the "digest":

Ezbon Jen is a 3rd generation health professional in his family. His grandfather came to California right after the Gold Rush to provide health care for Chinese miners and railroad workers. Ezbon was born by the light of a flashlight in Hong Kong during WWII. After the war, America invited Asians who had been U.S. citizens to repatriate, and his family came to California in 1946. He received his Masters of Biology from Pacific Union College, his Masters of Education from USC, and his Masters in Public Health and later his Doctorate in Public Health from Loma Linda University. Upon completion of his Doctorate, he was appointed to a full time faculty position in the School of Public Health at Loma Linda for 7 years.

Later, Ezbon realized he wanted to concentrate on providing public health services to the rural counties of Northern California, where he spent 7 years in Humboldt, Del Norte, Tuolumne, and Lake Counties, as public health education director and county health administrator. He returned to the academic world, serving as Health and Human Services Director at Mendocino College, and for the last 19 years, he has been the Dean of Instruction, Health Sciences, at SRJC. He is also a Rotarian, a member of the Santa Rosa Sunrise Club for 13 years, currently serving as the director of Service Programs.... of course! (Not bad for a guy who "just" wanted to be a Marine Biologist!). Ezbon now begins:

After completing his Master in Biology, Ezbon was drafted and inducted through Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio. He commented about how much he appreciated the "draft" system in the U.S. because it is so egalitarian – everybody has to serve in some way. He was assigned to the 6/31 Battalion of the 9th Infantry Division in Vietnam (the same unit that Forrest Gump was in), where he served as a combat field medical corpsman, and was awarded the Combat Medical Badge and Bronze Star. He was later assigned to the Brigade Surgeon's office in Tran An, and later to the Education Office in Long Binh. He served a total of 13½ months in Vietnam.

A Cause

I care not where I must go,
nor for whom my services be rendered.

It must be a cause that can lift
the burdens of living and suffering from my brothers and sisters of this Earth.

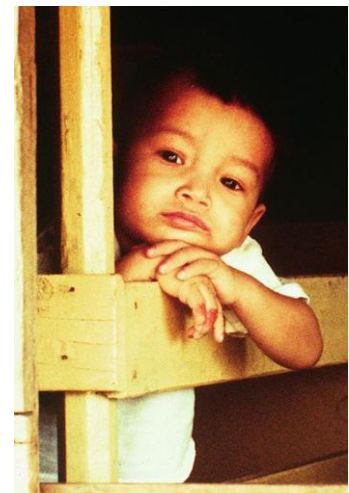

(1 hour from Saigon, 6 April 1969)

Ezbon kept a journal while in Vietnam, keeping track of the things that happened to and around him, and documenting through words and photos his experience in Vietnam. He witnessed the dropping of Agent Orange, and felt the ambivalence of the evil results it brought to some, while saving other's lives.

He showed many slides from his time in Vietnam, and many were photos of children. He noted that usually, when you saw women and children out and about, it was safe. You always wanted to have candy with you, to give to the kids. When he was assigned to a unit, he would also spend time working on the health needs of the villagers. One photo showed a dry rice field, and he pointed out that the shallow levies around the fields provided visual shelter from the enemy, wet or dry, so they were frequently where soldiers would sleep. He showed a photo of the "Tiger Scout" from his unit. This was a Vietnamese soldier that each unit would have. Of the 26 men in his unit, he was 25, the second oldest.

One night, they were ordered to set up a base camp, but somehow they knew they would be hit that night, and sure enough, they were. When the enemy would shoot missiles or grenades, members of his unit would have to run out and try to cover up the holes they made, so the holes couldn't be used at targeting assistance for more shelling.

While his unit was stationed at Dong Tang, they were visited by Bob Hope's show, and he had a photo of Bob with Connie Stevens and the current Miss World. He spent some time patrolling on a Swift Boat on the Saigon River, spent time vaccinating children at an orphanage that housed 2300 kids, got to fly in helicopters to go to field hospitals, where they would triage the wounded. Their goal was to keep them alive for 10 minutes, because if you heard the helicopters arriving at 8 or 9 minutes, you knew that they would probably make it to the Medivac hospital. Most of the wounded who made it to the Medivac hospital could be saved if they were there within 20 minutes.

When Ezbon arrived in Vietnam, he weighed 173 pounds. When he left to come home, he weighed only 140 pounds. He also became a vegetarian while he was there. He spoke with village elders, who told him about the importance of the water buffalo. A farmer told him, "If you die, the family mourns, but if the buffalo is killed, the family starves".

Ezbon was fortunate to have had such a variety of experiences in Vietnam, and commented about how glad he is that the returning Veterans of today are being treated well. When he was in graduate school after returning, he would get questions about "how many women and children did you kill", and other mean-spirited things... so he is thankful that today's returning soldiers don't have to face such things.

At the end of his talk, Ezbon quoted one line from a poem he wrote, but didn't have time to read the whole poem. Here it is, entitled "For This is War"

I see children not in school,
find their laughter
not too soothing.

I treat their wounds,
but can't stay to teach—
for this is war.

A grateful orphan boy
takes my hand
as if he's my son—
holds it as we walk the road.
I need to look more into his face,
but must look for enemies instead—
for this is war.

I shake my hand
from his vice-like grip,
trying to give an adequate good-bye.
I can't be his father,
not even his brother.
I'm only a friend
for a few short steps—
for this is war.

Crimson Rivers

*I'll be leaving Vietnam tomorrow night
My home
My prison
My book of sorrows
My school of life*

*I've prayed many hours for tomorrow night,
and I know that dawn will come for me*

*I do have a few regrets.
I'm not sure if I made this a better land
by coming . . .*

*Crimson rivers still flow to the sea.
Growing rice fields still mourn for the Earth.*

*However, I do know
That I will never come back —
Not even if I'm a very old man —
For I am one right now*

The Closing Bell

President Aleia thanked Dr. Ezbon Jen for his talk and awarded him our club's gift to Polio Plus in his name. She then rang the bell and wished all a great weekend.

After the Bell

Many thanks to our speaker, Dr. Ezbon Jen for permission to include some of his great photographs and writing.

Thanks also to our able Photo Shooter, J.C. Martin and especially our Scribe, Barbara Beedon, who – despite considerable distractions – labored to “O-Dark-Thirty” in the morning to supply “–Ed.” with words for his word processor. (We understand that Barbara has been doing active research in various medical products and treatments—while contemplating recipes for Special Cat Stew. –Ed.) Thank you both for your excellent contributions to the AppleKnocker.

The ABC's of Rotary

Dr. Cliff Dochterman who was RI President in 1992-93)*

#74: Paul Harris Fellows

Undoubtedly, the most important step to promote voluntary giving to The Rotary Foundation occurred in 1957, when the idea of Paul Harris Fellow Recognition was first proposed. Although the concept of making US$1,000 gifts to the Foundation was slow in developing, by the early 1970s it began to gain popularity. The distinctive Paul Harris Fellow medallion, lapel pin, and attractive certificate have become highly respected symbols of a substantial financial commitment to The Rotary Foundation by Rotarians and friends around the world. By 2002, some 813,000 Paul Harris Fellows had been added to the rolls of The Rotary Foundation.

The companion to the Paul Harris Fellow is the Rotary Foundation Sustaining Member, which is the recognition presented to an individual who has given, or in whose honor a gift is made, a contribution of $100, with the stated intention of making additional contributions until $1,000 is reached. At that time, the Sustaining Member becomes a Paul Harris Fellow.

A special recognition pin is given to Paul Harris Fellows who make additional gifts of $1,000 to the foundation. The distinctive gold pin includes a blue stone to represent each $1,000 contribution — from $2,000 to $6,000. Red stone pins signify gifts of $7,000 to $9,000. Paul Harris Fellow Recognition provides a very important incentive for the continuing support needed to underwrite the many programs of The Rotary Foundation that build goodwill and understanding in the world.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY—"Real wealth comes to the man who has learned he is paid best for the things he does for nothing."

Last Week

John Busterud gave us a most interesting talk on "Education, Challenge for 1962." He certainly added to our education in the operation of the Assembly on "Gerrymandering." Thanks, John, for a most interesting program, and thanks to Lew Hart for arranging John's visit.

This Week's Program

Program for this week (Farm-City Week) will be given by Harold Angier, manager and executive vice president of the California Grape and Tree Fruit League. Mr. Angier will give us a picture of the agricultural situation today—as he sees it. Walt Tischer, program chairman, says be sure and bring a farmer friend.

PROGRAM CHAIRMEN FOR FUTURE WEEKS

Nov. 17 _____ Ralph Pierce
Nov. 24 _____ Dayton Butler
Dec. 1 _____ Bill Overstreet
Dec. 8 _____ Ezra Briggs

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY
HEALDSBURG 6:30 P. M.	GUERNEVILLE 12:15 (June 1 - Sept. 30) 6:30 (Oct. 1 - May 30)	SANTA ROSA-12:15 SONOMA-7:00 P. M.	PETALUMA-12:10 P. M. CLOVERDALE-12:15 P. M.

Mother discovered her little daughter fighting with the boy next door. After parting them she lectured her daughter. "Next time," she said, "I don't want you hitting Johnny back. Remember—you're a lady. Out-talk him!"

After watching our Vice-President carry on last week's meeting, almost made us wish Prez. Bob was here, but not quite! Any way you look at it, both Bob & Walt are elected officers, so guess we'll have to put up with them until we can get some new blood.

"Keep Smiling! Make everybody wonder what you've been up to."

MEET ROTARIAN

We're still in trouble with this column! President Bob has decreed that Bud Park attend night school, believing this will help eliminate some of the mistakes that have been made in the past. To date Bud hasn't been able to find a night school or any other school that will allow him to enroll. Will either Larry Duffield or George Simth lower the requirements and standards of Analy's night school?

BIRTHDAYS

Happy birthday to Larry Duffield, who celebrated his 29th for the umpteenth time on Nov. 4. (Amazing how some people stay the same age each year, then that renowned toy auto dealer, Harold Pellini, will celebrate on Nov. 12th (Maybe special discounts on new cars? Try him and see!)

ROTARY BULLETIN

When we pay our Rotary dues, we agree to live up to the by-laws of Rotary International as well as those of our local club.

Statistical Report for August 1961. (Attendance) There are 52 clubs in District 513. The top ten are as follows: Guerneville, Novato, Los Gatos, West San Jose, Lakeport, San Jose, Fort Bragg, Sebastopol, Menlo Park, and Watsonville.

That Christmas party Dec. 13 is getting closer and closer!

A.W.O.L. LAST FRIDAY

Howard Enos - Gail Fehrens - Jack Hanley - Lloyd Hayes - Dick Hogan - Jack Long Chet Marsh - Ralph Pierce - Horace Sharrocks - Bob Shone - George Streckfus.

VISITORS

Andover, Ohio: Franz Loeffler.
Guernville: Dell Roberts, Lee Minor, Forestville.
Healdsburg: Charles (Chuck) Weston.

Santa Rosa: Chester Beck, Joe Bessone, Pete Bessone, Robert L. Bishop, Norman A. Brown, Charles de la Forest, Norton Forsyth, Kenneth G. Malm, Randolph Newman, Elmer C. Scott, Ray Smith, Mitchell Soso, Allen D. Sprague, Thomas A. Zerinteff.

Petaluma: Harry Graham, George Mikkelsen.
Ukiah: Hod Branson.

"NOW YOU KNOW...."

Walt Tischer is the only program chairman this year who has given written notice two weeks in advance as to his program. Prez. Bob, this sort of efficiency has to stop! Maybe two-bit fine would straighten this guy out.

Jack O'Brien is wearing a Rotary badge again. After several months of intensive searching, he either found it at home or had another badge printed. What's the difference. Pres. Bob will fine him plenty $$$$.

This Friday, the following Rotarians will receive perfect attendance bars on their Rotary Badges—1 year, Jack Jacobs, Craig Laughlin; 2-years, Don Hallberg, Ralph Pierce, Bob Rector; 6-years, Jack O. O'Brien; 13-years, Clint Carlson. The club congratulates each of you, as perfect attendance is an individual effort and the mark of a good Rotarian.

Well? Here's Hubert (in trap): "The traps on this course are quite annoying, aren't they?"

Chester (trying to putt): "They sure are. Would you mind closing yours?"

We don't know about this one, but we hear that "The trouble with a sure thing is the uncertainty."

Hey Everett! If we tell Prez. Bob that you're looking at new airplanes with a gleam in your eye, he's gonna need a lotta tranquilizers to keep him quiet until you decide if you is, or if you ain't! Man, could the Prez. balance the club budget, if you is! Sorry, fellas, hate to burst the bubble, but kids will be kids! Getting near Christmas and could be Everett was just looking at planes in the five and dime store . . . Well! Is he is or is he ain't!

Again, the Prez. sez: More of the list of unfilled classifications. Do you know someone who could fill one of these and would make a good Rotarian?

Liquors retailing, resort lodges, meat packing and distributing, meat products retailing, men's clothing retailing, milk products retailing, motion picture theaters, newspaper publishing, nurseries horticultural, fuel oil, osteopathy, plumbing & supplies, pneumatic tires retailing, printing and bookbinding, refined oil products, restaurants, roofing construction, rugs retailing, service stations and garages, sheet metal, box shok, soft drink parlors, sporting goods retailing, live stock breeders, summer resorts, tree surgeons, fishing tackle retailing, taxicab service, timber & timber products, tourist camps, trucking service, turkey raising, vending machine service, tire vulcanizing service, wall paper retailing, warm air furnaces, watch repairing service, wines distilling.
