All the News that Fits We Print

President Aleia called the meeting to order sharply at 12:15 pm. This gal is organized, for sure. The Salute to the Flag was led by Rick Wilson. Paul Thielen led us in singing "God Bless America". The Thought for the Day was offered by Reverend Gene Nelson. (Heard it was really funny. –Ed.)

Bud Daveiro introduced our visiting Rotarians: Tony Pinochi, of ReNew Systems, from Ignacio Rotary; Lynda Sue Pinoch from Windsor; Richard Polheber, CEO of Palm Drive Hospital, from Sebastopol Sunrise; and Lee Reposa, Bank VP, Board Member of Petaluma Rotary.

Sebastopol Rotarians introduced their guests: David Still introduced his wife, Nan; Kathi Benedetti, wife of Brad Benedetti, introduced Boss, our visiting Exchange Student from Thailand; Bob Cugini introduced his wife, Julie; and Brook Haven Interact Officers introduced themselves: Riley McHale, president; Kelsi Roman, Vice President; Taylor Weber, Secretary; and Erin Garlock, Treasurer.

Lobster Feed:

Neysa Hinton reminded members that there still is a need to donate items for the Silent Auction of the upcoming Lobster Feed.

Bristol Hassler announced that she needs people to turn in their guest's names for the Lobster Feed. She also reported that we have only 30 seats left. Buy them, guys and gals.

Dan Rasmus pointed out that he needs new items, descriptions, and write-ups for silent auction items in order to get them listed. There's be an on-line auction as well – starting 2 weeks prior to event. Jerry Warren also needs write ups for the wine adventures by next week.

Jack Blasco ended the Lobster Feed reminders, telling us he needs volunteers to work at the event. Sign up now!

Interact:

Emily Buller surprised the club with the announcement that two national Rotary Presentations for 2010-2011 have been awarded to the Brookhaven and Analy Interact Clubs for "Commitment to Fellowship and Service." (Last year they were awarded the RI Presidential Citation Award.) Three Cheers for our Interact Clubs and members!

Fishing Trip:

President Aleia reported on the club's ocean fishing trip. Seventeen members went for 12 hours of fun. Neysa Hinton threw her fish back, however – Doubtless too big to keep! Neysa fined $10.

Foundation:

Richard Power gave a report on the Foundation.

Birthdays - The following Rotarians were honored for celebrating their recent birthdays...at $5 each:

Michael Hixson, Sept 18th – He rode in the MS Bike Ride for two days, raising over $12K. He thanked all the members who supported him.

Our President, also Sept. 18th – Went to the 49ers/Cowboys game at the "Stick".

The next day, Sept 19th, Les Crawford went to a show in San Francisco with kids and grandkids.

Mike Long celebrated his birthday on Sept 22nd with a party with 50 friends and a rock band and had a nice time with his buddies.

Anniversaries:

Diana Rich and husband, Daniel, celebrated ("Fabulous") their 20th with a dinner in Occidental.

Dennis Judd and his wife Anna took a trip in August to Mt. Saint Helens, the Columbia Gorge, and enjoyed a stopover at the Benbow Inn at Garberville. Fine was $25. (He initially said only "North" to which Frank Mayhew asked "Windsor?")

Trips:

Jack Blasco was fined $15 for visiting cousins in Connecticut. (He was headed for NYC but had two flights canceled because of Hurricane Irene and finally made it for a shorter trip to Conn. President Aleia awarded him a smaller fine for the shorter trip, saying "I gave him a break.")

Tim and Mary Ann Moore went on a Black Sea Cruise, stopping in Sevastopol on the Crimea (Allegedly "looking for Mrs. Doubtfire). " A lifetime dream", he told us. Aleia hit him up for $25. (We got it right! See http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sevastopol. -Ed.)

Kent Seegmiller and Joan went several kilometers further north, to Moscow's Red Square and the Kremlin. "A marvelous time." It cost him here, 25 dollars, not rubles. (1 USD = 31.79 RUB. –Ed.)

Harry and Jeanie Polley were more local, "trying out fishing skills". That cost them $25 too. They went to the Fall River with Jerry and Kay Warren – Harry wanted to know where The Prez got the picture – She wouldn't tell.

At President Aleia's initiation, Rotarians rose to brag of recent milestones in their lives:

Les Crawford announced that he was pleased to have voters in his school district (Twin Hills Union School District) approve Measure "M" to install solar panels (and "recharging panels" – batteries for storing power) on his school buildings – "the first district to have solar recharging panels" He offered a $100 donation to the Rotary Foundation.

Dennis Judd shared that his mother has finally published, after many trials and tribulations, her story as a survivor of the Holocaust. Kent Seegmiller added that the speakers committee of the club have invited Judd's mother to speak at an upcoming club meeting.

Frank Mayhew called to the attention of the club members that there now are two (2) vacancies on the Palm Drive Hospital District Board of Directors.

Richard Power shared how he is proud of his son who has had 2 news articles published about organic farming. (Usage of horses in organic farming.)

Mario Ramos noted that on July 30th he celebrated 15 years of business with his restaurant in Graton.

Nao Noguchi reported that his son is now in Madagascar. Nao and his wife, Kathie, will be visiting their son there. "We need to take tooth brushes and pens there if you have any extra."

Raffle ticket winner, Pauline Pellini, walked away with $15. Congratulations, Pauline!

Kent Seegmiller introduced the program speaker, Robert (Rob) Mahoney. "Upon graduation from UC Riverside, Rob was employed by a major insurance company and trained in Hartford, Connecticut. His first assignment was his native Boston, Mass., where he began a 37 year career in the employee benefits field. During this timeframe he also worked in NY City, upstate NY, Detroit, and Kansas City. Rob spent the last 12 years as an independent consultant in KC.

Last year Rob chose to return to CA on sabbatical and ultimately ease into early retirement. He is a resident and member of Crow Canyon Country Club in Danville. An avid golfer, he shares his time between honing his game and his other passion – music. His extensive music collection ranges from the 192-'s to current. In addition to the music itself, Rob accumulates a wealth of information about each artist and their work.

Today, Rob is going to share with us info about a ten year slice of music history starting with the advent of rock and roll and ending with the initial stages of the 'British Invasion'. Hopefully you will acquire a bit of a different appreciation for the music that many of us grew up with."

(Your Editor thought he had discovered a major secret when he Googled "Rob Mahoney" and found another person with the name Rob Mahoney, a.k.a. Rob Noxious. A different guy. –Ed.)

Rob Mahoney began his talk and used short "clips" of music to show the evolution of music. (Emily Buller came to his aid when the computer wouldn't cooperate.) Rob explained the differences between Rock & Roll and Country & Blues. He pointed out that Johnny Otis lived in Sebastopol and was a star performer in the Rock "N" Roll period. Much of the two music trends grew out of Harlem until they merged in the sixties.

Rob Mahoney kindly supplied your Editor (on vacation) the following summary of his presentation:

"In the mid 50's and prior there were at least two distinct music audiences black and white. Many of the white artists covered the songs that were popular on the R&B ("black") charts and turned them into hits on the BB (Billboard, Hot 100, and predecessor charts - "white" charts for this discussion). (The chart names are further indication that there were distinctly different audiences: Harlem Hit Parade, Juke Box Race Records, Rhythm & Blues, and Combined w/Hot 100, Hot R&B) By the early 60's the audiences pretty much blended and even for a little while the BB chart and the R&B chart were merged.

The Rock and Roll era (roughly a five year period) had pretty much come to an end by the end of the 50's. Buddy Holly died in a plane crash, Elvis went in the Army, Jerry Lee Lewis fell out of favor for his choice of brides (his cousin), and Chuck Berry served some time in jail. By the early 60's popular music was dominated by pop music - very little of which was either rock and roll or simply rock music.

In January of 1964 Bobby Vinton's "There I Said It Again' was the number one Billboard hit for four weeks. The next number one hit on 2/1/1964 was "I Wanna Hold Your Hand" by The Beatles and the music world changed overnight! This was the advent of the British Invasion. The groups were definitely British but where did the music come from? Most of these artists grew up on old American blues and R&B music as evidenced by some of the cover songs that I played. In essence, what happened with the British Invasion was that the British groups imported our own music to the American public that had either entirely missed or ignored the blues music of the past.

The quotes by Keith Richards of The Rolling Stones pretty much summarize the entire presentation."

"I knew what I wanted to do. I was becoming a missionary for a new kind of music. That's what Chuck Berry, Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Elvis, Jerry Lee, Little Richard, and Bo Diddley did to me. I was only 18 (1961) and already people weren't hearin' this music anymore."

"I think there was a vacuum somewhere in white American music at the time (early 1960s)."

"The most bizarre part of the story is that, having turn(ed) people on to the blues, what actually happened was we turned American people back on to their own music... we weren't the only ones, without The Beatles, nobody would have broken the door down."

President Aleia thanked the speaker for his informative, entertaining, and nostalgic talk and presented him with a speaker's gift of a donation to PolioPlus in his name. She then rang the bell, adjourning the meeting at 1:30 p.m.

Your (new) Editor greatly thanks Bob Rogers, his predecessor, for "returning to the traces" for several weeks while we were vacationing – and that was in addition to his other new duties. (Wait until I tell him about my next trip.)

The ABC's of Rotary

(Taken from "The ABCs of Rotary", a Rotary International publication originally prepared by Dr. Cliff Dochterman who was RI President in 1992-93) #67: Ambassadorial Scholarships

The Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships program is the world's largest privately funded international scholarships program. In 1947, 18 "Rotary fellows" from 11 countries were selected to serve as ambassadors of goodwill while studying in another country for one academic year. Since that time, approximately US$413 million has been expended on some 34,000 scholarships for people from some 110 countries, studying in 105 countries around the world.

The purpose of the scholarships program is to further international understanding and friendly relations among people of different countries. Scholars are expected to be outstanding ambassadors of goodwill to the people of the host country through both informal and formal appearances before Rotary and non-Rotary groups. Each scholar is assigned a host Rotarian counselor to facilitate involvement in Rotary and integration into the host culture.

Since 1994-95, The Rotary Foundation has offered two new types of scholarships in addition the Academic-Year Ambassadorial Scholarships. The Multi-Year ambassadorial Scholarship is awarded for two years of specific degreeoriented study abroad. The Cultural Ambassadorial Scholarship provides funding for three or six months of intensive language study and cultural immersion in another country.

In addition to being an investment in the education of tomorrow's leaders, Rotary Foundation scholarships create personal links between countries and are an important step toward greater understanding and goodwill in the world.

Favorite Rotary Service Project: I feel the water projects are some of the best Rotary does. Of course, eradicating Polio is pretty awesome too.

Who have you sponsored as a Rotary Member? None, but I talk about the good things rotary does all the time. I think this helps.

Please join the Rotary Club of Sebastopol and help make the 5th Annual Lobster Feed the most successful fundraising event ever! We are so proud that all the monies that are raised through this fun event are returned to the community in the form of Teacher Mini Grants, Learn-to-Swim Programs for local 2nd grade students and High School Foreign Exchange Programs; as well as a multitude of other community-based and international programs. If you have children that have gone to school in Sebastopol, your children's education has been touched by Rotary in some way. We believe this is the Premier Social Event of the Year, and we have fun while raising money! Come join your friends and business colleagues and enjoy great food and wine by local vintners, coupled with exciting live and silent auctions items!
