Object of Rotary	The Four-Way Test
The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:	Encouraging high ethical standards and respect for all worthy vocations has been a hallmark of Rotary from its earliest days. In their business and professional lives, Rotarians abide by The Four-Way Test: Of the things we think, say or do:
1. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;	Is it the TRUTH?
2. High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;	Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his or her personal business and community life; and	Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men and women united in the ideal of service.	Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
