After a 2 year break I'm back!!! Albeit on a 'Caretaker' basis until someone else can be encouraged to 'Have a Go' and take on the role. Genevieve Carr has commendably filled the roll for the last 2 years.

We enjoyed a Changeover Meeting with a difference last weekend, which was held as a 'High Tea' on Saturday afternoon at Peel Manor House, instead of the regular Saturday night dinner format.

I must say it worked very well, the ambiance of the venue is exceptional and a credit to the owners.

Thank you PP Mike Nella for your leadership during the past year, congratulations on being awarded a PHF by incoming President Stephen Castelli.

Pictures from the event are available to peruse both on ClubRunner and Face Book.

Pleased to acknowledge that PP Bevan Piper is home after undergoing an operation to pin a hip which was fractured in a home fall recently, mobility is coming along nicely.

Bevan tells me he is now managing with one crutch and hoping to come along Rotary next Monday night.

President Report

Changeover: The day was a success in spite of a number of late apologies, which caused the program to be re-jigged. From all accounts, the High Tea was well received and enjoyed by all. There were a number of awards handed out to a large number of members, and congratulations to each and all those receiving an award.

There were 3 highlights. Actually 2 highlights, and 1 lowlight. The lowlight was the wearing of full Scottish paraphernalia including the obligatory kilt. This caused many a twitter from the ladies, and a number of raucous comments from the gentlemen. Only Norm could have done it and got away with it. Good onya mate.

The 1st highlight was the presentation of the Fellowship Award to PO Greg Williams. As we all know, Greg is always there helping out with every function and quite often doing the work behind the scenes that we don't see.

Greg commented after the award that he was gob smacked. Well deserved Greg. The 2nd highlight was the award of a Paul Harris Fellowship to PP Mike Nella. This took Mike by surprise (as planned), and you could see that he was blown away by this very special award. There were a number of comments indicating that this was overdue for Mike, who puts in many, many hours with Rotary, and especially his passions of the Indonesian Schools Renovation Project and the youth projects of Rotaract and Interact. Once again, Well deserved Mike.

Bread Project: Looking for some more assistance from members. Edd Samut who collects the bread from Waikiki every 2nd Friday will not be here for the next 10 weeks as he and that other grey nomad, Anne take a caravanning holiday. Cyril Bennett has offered to do the Friday night pickup from Waikiki, but only for the next 3 weeks until he goes on a holiday. Diane Brown has offered to help, but she needs to work it around her daughter, and will advise her availability this week. Thanks Diane. Wendy Cooper is commencing her apprenticeship on the Bread Project this Friday with her 1st pickup of bread from Baldivis. Welcome to the club Wendy. You do not need to put yourself down on the roster, if you cannot commit to a roster, but if you are willing to help, let me know, and when we have a vacancy, I can then contact you.

Note: PP Brain McCallum will be the acting Membership Director for the 10 weeks that Edd is away.

President Elect Wendy Cooper

Off we go into a new year after a thoroughly delightful Changeover High Tea at the Peel Manor House. (Did you take a peek at the rooms upstairs? They are beautiful.) Thank you Steve for choosing such a pleasant venue giving us the opportunity to enjoy each other's company in a relaxed atmosphere.

Thank you to the team that has passed over the baton after another successful year.

One of the comments I have heard in conversations with club members is that we don't have enough social functions so I would like to set aside a day on the first weekend of the each month to do just that. Socialise! That way it will be easy to remember and plan ahead to fit into an already busy schedule.

I'll call it Wendy's Weekend Wanderings.

My plan is to keep it simple, local if possible, or to places we may not ordinarily visit, midmorning or early afternoon or an evening.

Any suggestions most welcome.

First event

A short bushwalk in the Leda Reserve followed by coffee (and cake?) at Bliss Momo in the Village at Wellard.

More info to follow in next bulletin.

AUSTRALIAN ROTARY HEALTH WELCOMES SUPPORT FROM HBF FOR LIFT THE LID ON MENTAL ILLNESS: YOUNG MINDS MATTER FORUM

Australian Rotary Health is pleased to announce that health fund HBF will be joining our mission to Lift the Lid on Mental Illness, by supporting our upcoming Young Minds Matter Mental Health Community Forum and cocktail and networking event with special guest WA Governor Kim Beazley.

We'd be delighted if you would join us on Wednesday July 25 2018 at UWA Club Crawley for an evening that focuses on the importance of research into youth mental health.

Why is this important?

Every year 1 in 5 Australians suffer a mental illness, with suicide being the biggest killer of young Australians. Through research, we hope to change these figures.

Our key note speaker Associate Professor David Lawrence (Principal research fellow in the Graduate School of Education, UWA) says mental disorders are among the most common and disabling health conditions affecting children and adolescence today.

“Young Minds Matter surveyed over 6,000 families with children aged 4-17 years around Australia. We examine how mental disorders impact children’s development and learning, and what types of help children need, and receive,” Associate Professor David Lawrence said.

You can help continue the conversation about mental health by attending the Lift the Lid on Mental Illness: Young Minds Matter and be inspired just as those who attended last year were.

Here are the details:

When: Wednesday 25th July, 2018

Alarming polio outbreak spreads in Congo, threatening global eradication efforts

Leslie Roberts (Science) Jul. 2, 2018

Overshadowed by the Ebola outbreak in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC), another frightening virus is on the loose in that vast, chaotic country: polio. Public health experts have worked for months to stamp out the virus, but it keeps spreading. It has already paralyzed 29 children, and on 21 June a case was reported on the border with Uganda, far outside the known outbreak zone, heightening fears that the virus will sweep across Africa. The DRC is “absolutely” the most worrisome polio outbreak today, says Michel Zaffran, who heads the Global Polio Eradication Initiative (GPEI) at the World Health Organization (WHO) in Geneva, Switzerland.

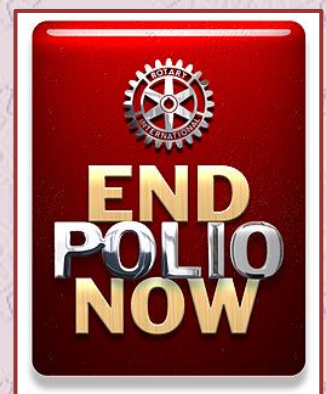

The outbreak also underscores the latest complication on the bumpy road toward polio eradication. It is caused not by the wild virus hanging on by a thread in Afghanistan, Pakistan, and perhaps Nigeria, but by a rare mutant derived from the weakened live virus in the oral polio vaccine (OPV), which has regained its neurovirulence and the ability to spread. As OPV campaigns have driven the wild virus to near-extinction, these circulating vaccine-derived polioviruses (cVDPVs) have emerged as the greatest threat to polio eradication. If the outbreaks are not stopped quickly, polio scientists warn, they could spiral out of control, setting eradication efforts back years.
