Bulletin

No 11 15th Sept. 2014

Our meeting tonight was a 'club assembly' to hear the results of the recent 'Club Visioning' process we had a few weeks ago. PDG Bob Cooper collated the results and presented them to the club tonight.

We will officially welcome Lee Davis, our newest member to our club next week 22nd September.

Our Bendigo Community Bank is a little closer to reality after the Prospectus Launch Tuesday night with about 26% of pledges collected on the night, well done John Iriks and his dedicated team.

Sad reflection on our community when the 'Money Spinner' situated outside Woolworths at Kwinana Market place was again stolen, the good news is with the aid of cctv a 25 year old woman will front court Wednesday 17th most of the coin from the spinner was recovered.

The money Spinner was recovered but is damaged beyond repair, even if restitution is awarded by the court getting the money may be another story.

The Four-Way Test

Of things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL? and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Project Director's Report.

PP Ian Critchley has suggested we have a 'Grand Final' function this year at our club rooms. Eric will organise the video gear etc.

The Wellard Village Markets were held on Sunday 14th September very successful morning, 51 stalls plus car boot sellers, fantastic weather. Rotaract BBQ trailer had a record result, most people went away reasonably happy. Adjustments to the positioning of some stalls will be made next month.

Thanks to Errol McDonald who will be looking after 'stall holder bookings' while Chris is away.

City Square Markets are progressing nicely, traffic management plan complete, still looking at a November commencement.

Lolly Run committee will be meeting very soon.

East Timor Water Project: Departure date is 25th August 2014 Max, Greg and the team have left, returning 23rd September 2014. Emails from Max from Timor suggest that everything is going to plan and the team are progressing well.

Lorraine now has four applications to attend RYPEN which will begin on Friday October 24th

Plans to have at least 5 restaurant meetings during 2014/15 Next one will be Monday 13th October, venue 'The Admiral'

Andy Valk Trust: Contact with our two current recipients, Miriam and Sara, confirmation of their current status.

So far 8 applications have been received from Gilmore College for next year's allocations.

Kwinana Festival, this year we will be operating the Chocolate Wheel and our Food Van.

Renewal of our lease agreement with the City Of Kwinana has been approved and is progressing through the required channels.

Club Visioning process

Club Assembly

PDG Bob Cooper

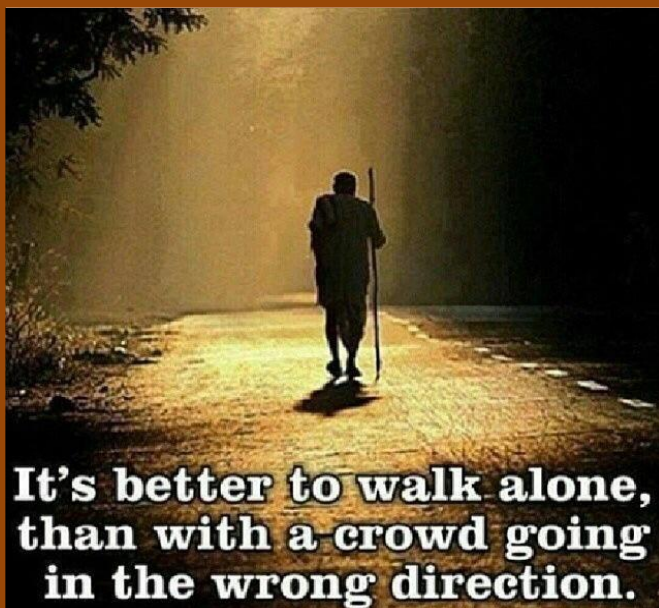

Our club held a club assembly tonight to hear the collated results of our recent Club Visioning evening held a few weeks ago and chaired by PDG John Simmons.

The results were collated by Bob and Wendy and presented by PDG Bob tonight.

Our club now has a well-defined path laying out our plans and objectives over the next 5 years.

The 2 page report relayed by PDG Bob can be viewed by members at any time. (You must log-in) look in club documents on our website.

Ralph is driving home one evening, when he suddenly realizes that it's his daughter's birthday and he hasn't bought her a present. He drives to the shops, runs to the toy store, and says to the shop assistant, "How much is that Barbie in the window?"

In a condescending manner, she says, "Which Barbie?" She continues, "We have Barbie Goes to the Gym for $19.95, Barbie Goes to the Ball for $19.95, Barbie Goes Shopping for $19.95, Barbie Goes to the Beach for $19.95, Barbie Goes Nightclubbing for $19.95, and Divorced Barbie for $265.00."

Ralph asks, "Why is the Divorced Barbie $265.00 when all the others are only $19.95?"

"That's obvious," the saleslady says. "Divorced Barbie comes with Ken's house, Ken's car, Ken's boat, Ken's furniture..."

Africa is closer than ever to eradicating polio, with fewer cases between January and August of 2014 than in any other year in the past decade. Polio cases in Nigeria have dropped almost 90% since 2013 despite the challenge of conducting immunization campaigns amidst conflict in northern areas, and Chad recently celebrated two years of being polio-free. An aggressive response is underway to face the polio risk in central Africa.

In responding to the Ebola outbreak in west Africa, countries are drawing on their polio experience and infrastructure. In Nigeria, for example, the government rapidly established an emergency operations centre modelled on the successful polio experience. In view of the gravity of Ebola outbreak, the program is rescheduling some activities in countries directly affected by Ebola.

NIGERIA MOVES TOWARD ERADICATION

In the next year Nigeria could cut the number of polio cases to zero, according to Nigeria's Minister of State for Health, Dr. Khaliru Alhassan.

Despite continued insecurity in the north, the polio eradication effort has made great strides, resulting in only six cases of polio in 2014 (all but one in Kano State) compared to 43 at the same time last year.

More children in Nigeria are being reached with vaccines due to the provision of health services alongside polio vaccines, improved engagement from religious leaders, and increases in campaign quality. Health workers are providing primary care services, including treatment for malaria, malnutrition and diarrhoea, alongside the polio vaccine in key regions.

CHAD TWO YEARS POLIO-FREE

In June, Chad celebrated two years of being polio-free, a testament to the government's hard work, focus on underperforming districts, and regular vaccination campaigns.

The Government of Chad's Reaching Every District (R.E.D.) campaign has provided resources to districts that need them most.

The program conducted two national campaigns in 2014, protecting an estimated 3.5 million children under-five against this crippling disease.

In the face of continuing risk of poliovirus importation, in May 2014, Chad participated in multi-country campaigns with Nigeria, Niger and Cameroon.

A husband, who has six children, begins to call his wife "mother of six" rather than by her first name. The wife, amused at first, chuckles. A few years down the road, the wife has grown tired of this. "Mother of six," he would say, "what's for dinner tonight? Get me a beer!" She gets very frustrated. Finally, while attending a party with her husband, he jokingly yells out, "Mother of six, I think it's time to go!" The wife immediately shouts back, "I'll be right with you, father of four!"

A man and a woman are sleeping together when suddenly there is a noise in the house, and the woman rolls over and says, "It's my husband, you have to leave!" The man jumps out of bed, jumps through the window, crawls through the bushes, and out on the street, when he realizes something. He goes back to the house and says to the woman, "Wait, I'm your husband!" She replies giving him a dirty look, "So why did you run?"

Q: Why didn't the man report his stolen credit card?

A: The thief was spending less than his wife.

During the wedding rehearsal, the groom approaches the pastor with an unusual offer. "Look, I'll give you $100 if you'll change the wedding vows. When you get to the part where I'm supposed to promise to 'love, honor, and obey' and 'be faithful to her forever,' I'd appreciate it if you'd just leave that out." He passes the minister a $100 bill and walks away satisfied. On the day of the wedding, when it comes time for the groom's vows, the pastor looks the young man in the eye and says, "Will you promise to prostrate yourself before her, obey her every command and wish, serve her breakfast in bed every morning of your life, and swear eternally before God and your lovely wife that you will not ever even look at another woman, as long as you both shall live?" The groom gulps, looks around, and says in a tiny voice, "Yes," then leans toward the pastor and hisses, "I thought we had a deal." The pastor puts a $100 bill into the groom's hand and whispers, "She made me a better offer."

A couple drives to the hospital because the wife is in labor.

The doctor alerts them that she invented a machine that will transfer some of the labor pain to the father, if they'd like. The husband eagerly says, "Give it all to me!" The couple returns home with a bouncing baby boy, only to find the milkman dead on their front lawn.

A man and a woman have just had their 50th wedding anniversary. The husband turns to his wife and asks, "What do you want to do to celebrate our anniversary dear?" She replies, "Let's run upstairs and make love." He turns to her and says, "Well make up your mind, we can't do both!"

A wife says, "Hey! Look at that funny guy who's been drinking a lot." The husband responds, "Who is he?" The wife answers, "Well, five years ago, he was my boyfriend and I dumped him for you." "Oh my God! He's still celebrating" says the husband.
