11th November 2019

Meeting on the 11th November gave us an opportunity to acknowledge the members, or family members that had served in the forces by asking them to wear their medals.

Our club is well represented in this space so it was special that we met on this day and allowed us to applaud their efforts in keeping us safe and giving us such a wonderful lifestyle.

Next week the numbers will swell again as our partners join us for the DEBATE!

Thanks to Chris for getting two teams together to battle it out for winning accolades. The topic has been kept under wraps for now so come along and join in the fun.

Thank you to everyone for providing feedback to John on their preference of meal choices. The data will give us a rotation of meals that meet the tastes of the majority of the members,

The AGM is set for the 9th December at which time we need to set the path ahead. If you have a particular spot you would like to take up next year please discuss it with John Iriks before that meeting date.

Board members please join us on Thursday night at 6pm for our meeting.

President 2020/21

PE John Iriks

Caterer has responded with a list of meal suggestions which the members viewed and indicated their anonymous preferences.

There was general acceptance of all suggestions with a minor preference for six items.

This has been communicated to the caterer.

Members have acknowledged an improvement of meal choice and presentation over the past two weeks.

AGM and elections for 2020/2021

AGM date set for 15/12/2019 (need to check).

Club service director and club secretary will prepare for the nomination of elected positions in accordance with constitution and by-laws in time for the AGM meeting.

The international Committee (RPTLE) is carrying out the following.

1. GG 1872605 progress report was authorised by the rotary Club of Kwinana on the 7th September and is only waiting on the President of the Rotary Club of Dili Lafaek to authorise so it can be submitted to foundation.
2. A new application for a global grant GG 2095275 that is jointly supported by District's 9465 & 9550 is now in draft form, it is only waiting on a couple minor items of information from Timor-Leste, before submitting to foundation. Why am I going thru the blood, sweat and bloody tears again?
3. Will be returning to Timor-leste with a small party working at Baguia, departing Perth 24th November 2019 to 18th December 2019.
4. Working on a foundation dinner with District 9465, this will be a major fund raiser. We envisage two keynote speakers for this event, His Excellency Abel Guterres Timor-leste Ambassador to Australia and a leading Catholic Priest from Timor-Leste.

Theme will be the trials and tribulations of the country moving from been under Indonesian rule, to the present day of 20 years as an emerging independent country.

The first committee meeting for this event was held on Saturday 3rd November and the event was then was approved in principle at the District Foundation Board on the 7th November

We will be holding a follow committee meeting very shortly.

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
WE SHALL NOT SLEEP,
THOUGH POPPIES GROW
IN FLANDERS FIELDS.

The poem was written by a Canadian Medical Corps doctor, Major John McCrae, who was serving with a Field Artillery Brigade in Ypres. The death of one of his friends in May 1915, buried in the cemetery outside his dressing station, affected him severely and he wrote his poem as a way of expressing his anguish at the loss. He was dissatisfied with the poem when he finished it and threw it away, but one of his fellow officers retrieved it and was so moved that he sent it to the media in London, where it was published by Punch on 8 December 1915. It's simple but evocative encapsulation of the horror of the trenches has made it the most famous of the war poems.

Polio This Week 6th November 2019

The GPEI is pleased to announce that the UK Government has confirmed its commitment to eradicating polio by pledging a £400 million ($A750m) contribution for the next four years, which will help vaccinate more than 400 million children a year.

In Pakistan, a circulating vaccine-derived poliovirus type 2 has been confirmed. A detailed investigation into the origin of the outbreak is ongoing, with circulation confirmed in a geographically-limited area, and outbreak response is being planned and implemented.

Are you an immunization expert interested in serving on the Strategic Advisory Group of Experts (SAGE) on polio?

The call for nominations for membership on the working group has now been issued, targeting individuals to submit their nominations.

Want to know the future of polio eradication efforts in Africa? Then stay tuned for a Facebook live interview with Dr Pascal Mkanda, chief polio expert in the WHO African Region, on 08 November 2019 at 10:00am, West Africa Time.

"Everybody keeps saying that women are smarter than men, but did you ever see a man wearing a shirt that has buttons down the back?"

An old Indian was asked what his wife's name was.

"Wife Name - Three Horse."

"That's an unusual name for your wife – Three Horse – What does it mean?"

"It's old Indian name means.... Nag – Nag – Nag"

A man walks into his bedroom and sees his wife packing her suitcase.

He asks: "What are you doing?"

She answers: I'm moving to Sydney. I heard that prostitutes there get paid $400 for doing what I do for you for free."

Later that night, getting ready to leave, the wife walks into the bedroom and sees her husband packing his suitcase. When she asks where he is going, he replies:

"I'm coming too. I want to see how you live on $800 a year..."
