Visitors always welcome

Tonight's meeting was a 'Club Forum' scheduled by President Stephen to address a few pressing issues that Stephen thought we should attend to sooner rather than later. I'm happy to say that the subsequent debate contrary to President Stephen's fears was both light hearted and cordial, mixed with a bit of our usual humour. The result was that we very much retain the 'Status Quo' on all three issues. A bit more information later in the Bulletin.

We are fast approaching the first of our two major catering projects for 2019, Australia Day on the 26th January see's us providing 700 cooked breakfast's for the City of Kwinana celebrations held on Calista Oval adjoining the Adventure Park. To provide this many breakfast's within the space of just over 1 hour or so is no mean feat, the success is due entirely to planning and preparation plus the generous assistance provided by club members and their partners. Our sincere thanks must go to Michael Metcalf for his articulate planning which makes sure we are all singing from the same song sheet. We need many pairs of hands to assist from 1 pm Friday 25th January at Rotary Hall to prepare for this important project on our annual calendar.

14th January 2018 President Report

I want to thank all the members that participated in the Club Forum held on Monday. The robust discussions were held in a very orderly manner, and all members were afforded the opportunity to give their opinions and views on the matters. I hope that the club can now move forward with the focus on what we can do for our local and the international community.

Sometimes, we get “bogged” down with the projects and work that we are doing, that we forget what good we are actually doing for the communities. It was refreshing to hear Nicole and Sean from Victory Life and Daughters of Destiny remind the club of the impact that a small group like ours has on some of the less fortunate local people.

We are doing some great work both at home and overseas, and we should be very proud of what we achieve, and we need to congratulate ourselves. So from me to all of you “Well Done, and lets continue to do even more good in 2019”

Bulletin Editor:

I will briefly report on the results regarding the three questions put to members at this meeting.

Fortnightly Meetings: This was resolved by a 12 to 8 vote by a show of hands to retain the current weekly meeting schedule.

Meals: Resolved by a show of hands to retain the services of Kent Street Deli, with a recommendation that a club representative meet with their management and discuss menu options.

Table Layout: After some discussion the meeting agreed to continue with the round tables partially considering the original associated financial outlay.

Co-operation is a priceless value –
You must give it to get it back

Never underestimate the power of influence.

Wendy's Weekend Wanderings

In the excitement of the Forum on Monday night I forgot to send around the attendance sheet for the Speed Games night, 2nd February, Rotary Hall, 7pm for 7:30pm.

If you would like to send me an email I will add your name to the list before sending the list around again on Monday.

In my original email I asked that we each bring our own Nibbles and drinks.

My thought at the moment is that as we will need the table for the games that we turn the kitchen table into a grazing table of sorts where people can wander/linger in between games. If that is acceptable could the chef in your home take into consideration a shared type tasting platter.

Happy to receive feedback on that idea.

I have never understood why women love cats.
Cats are independent, they don't listen, they don't come in when you call, they like to stay out all night, and when they're home they like to be left alone and sleep. In other words, every quality that women hate in a man, they love in a cat.

The owner of a clothing store, returning from lunch, was met by his jubilant salesman.

“C.J.,” exulted the salesman, “I just sold that suit that had been hanging for years in the corner!”

Owner: “You mean the plaid, double breasted one with the pink lapels and the gold stripes running down the bell-bottomed trouser legs?”

Salesman: “Yes, and I got top dollar for it, too!”

Owner: “Nice going—but why is your hand bandaged?”

Salesman: “As the customer was leaving, his seeing-eye dog bit me.”

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous.

The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved.

The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behaviour.

The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said, "We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!"

The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually.

The 8 year old went to meet with him first.

The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, "Where is God?" The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, "Where is God?" Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, "WHERE IS GOD?" At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and said, "What happened?" The younger brother replied, "We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it."
