Meeting with a difference this week, PP Chris Oughton took us on a tour of the Kwinana Industrial area, formally known as The Western Trade Coast. The WTC is a major industrial area located along the south metropolitan coast and is only 30 minutes from Perth's CBD. It is well-served by major transport links, including deep-water bulk port facilities, high-wide and dangerous goods freight routes, and heavy rail. Heavy road freight has easy access to the Kwinana Freeway and a high wide load corridor that links eastwards to the major freight networks leading to the north and south.

Chris as Director at the Kwinana Industries Council is well versed with the WTC and has conducted many educational and promotional tours of the area.

The growth and potential is quite incredible together with the new port situated in Kwinana.

We were taken on the tour in the Kwinana Community Bus, all 24 seats were occupied, with the trip taking just over 1 hour. Truly a rewarding exercise highlighting the future potential and growth in the Rockingham/Kwinana area. If you add the massive future development of HMAS Stirling, the future looks very positive indeed.

Joint Meeting with Rockingham Rotary Club

Both Clubs will be short of members attending our local Rotary meetings on Monday 29th May. This is due to some members attending the Rotary International Convention in Melbourne and our own Jakarta School Project members overseas working in Indonesia.

Due to the low attendance, I have invited the Rockingham Rotary Club to Join us for a Partners evening at our Club.

Gala Celebration and Auction

Our Rotary District 9465 will be closing down on 30th June. District Governor Ric has invited all Rotarians to join him on June 17th at South Perth yacht Club, to celebrate the achievements of the last 13 years of District 9465.

The night will feature a two-course meal with a cash bar and dancing to the music of Darren Reid and the Soul City Band.

Tickets are priced at $120 per head or $1000.00 for a table of ten. Information pamphlets have been distributed.

Bunnings BBQ to fundraise for Club funds.

Until this week's meeting we did not have enough volunteers for the Bunnings BBQ on Saturday 17th June. Fortunately, at tonight's meeting we had three more volunteers allowing us to continue with the BBQ.

I wish to thank all those who have previously volunteered, they are Bill, Terry, Tish, Karen, Edd and Cyril. The extra volunteers are Peter, Morgan and Kertrina.

First Aid

The defibrillator is now back in service with new battery and pads.

There is a green light that flashes intermittently that shows that the device is ready for use in an emergency.

If you notice any alarm situations, please make me aware of the problem as soon as possible.

What is the Western Trade Coast?

The WTC is a major industrial area located along the south metropolitan coast and is only 30 minutes from Perth's CBD. It is well-served by major transport links, including deep-water bulk port facilities, high-wide and dangerous goods freight routes, and heavy rail. Heavy road freight has easy access to the Kwinana Freeway and a high wide load corridor that links eastwards to the major freight networks leading to the north and south.

There are four primary industrial estates within the WTC, these being the Kwinana Industrial Area (KIA), Rockingham Industry Zone (RIZ), The Australian Marine Complex (AMC), and Latitude 32. The WTC is protected from residential land encroachment by a buffer zone and is accepted as being the State's premier industrial area. Situated around the edge of the WTC are the residential suburbs of Rockingham, Kwinana and Cockburn. Of the 30,000 direct and indirect workers that attribute their employment to the WTC, 2/3 live within 15kms of their workplaces.

The Kwinana Industrial Area (KIA)

This is the oldest part of the WTC, and was often referred to as "The Strip". This area represents the old Kwinana Industrial Area, or heavy industry core. Its first entrant was the BP Kwinana oil refinery in 1955. It has been the home of the traditional heavy industries, including petroleum and minerals refineries, power stations, chemical plants, cement works and a range of supporting industries. It is a busy industrial deep-water bulk port and is approaching land availability capacity. Extending from the south extremity of the KIA to its northern extremity, some 8kms, is a belt of secondary industries. These service the fabrication, construction, engineering and maintenance requirements of their heavy industry neighbours, and because land availability is approaching capacity, KIC is pressing for new heavy industrial land parcels to be developed and added to the industrial core.

Rockingham Industry Zone (RIZ)

On the fringes of the heavy industrial core is the RIZ. This is a newly developing heavy and light industrial area designed as an overflow to the KIA and for a belt of light industry through to commercial development as it gets closer to residential development. It provides space for many transport, storage and laydown areas as well as new industrial land for supporting and heavy industry.

Australian Marine Complex (AMC)

In the northern part of the WTC is the AMC, which is a specialist area for shipbuilding, marine engineering, manufacturing, fabrication, defence services, technology and general engineering. The area alongside the wharves also serves as a marshalling area for mining resource, oil & gas, marine, logistics and defence projects.

Latitude 32 To the east, the Latitude 32 Industry Zone.

This very large (1,400+ ha) area is still largely undeveloped for industry, although a general industry precinct (Flinders) is becoming built out. The area is awaiting its planning direction which will come once the locational decision for the new port in Kwinana is made by the State government in Q1 2020.

Covering 1,400ha, when fully developed this major industrial development zone will be amongst the largest in Australia and will be constructed to meet short, medium and long-term demand for industrial land in Perth.

Industry sees Latitude 32 as the area into which the heavy industrial core can expand in to. Once the decision on the port is made, it is expected there will be substantial pressure to zone the western profile of Latitude 32 for this purpose, with the remainder set aside for the logistics industries supporting the new port in Kwinana.
