Bulletin

No 40 13th June 2016

Be a gift to the world

My sincere thanks to PP Genevieve for compiling your bulletin in my absence over the last month or so.

Together with Greg and Marge Williams, Gladys and I had a very enjoyable and interesting cruise along the Rivers, Rhine, Main and Danube from Amsterdam to Budapest.

Thanks to Scenic Cruises the trip was five star all of the way, the organisation, the accommodation, the cuisine and the company was first class and a trip of a life-time.

We welcomed PDG Liz Westoby and AG Barry Berger to our meeting this week. Liz came along to reinforce her commitment to the 'Club Visioning' process we went through a couple of years ago.

We had our BBQ trailer at the opening of the new Aldi store in Kwinana, one of four opened in WA on the same day. For about 11 hours our club members cooked sausages and onions, served to customers by ladies from Red Cross to masses of customers queued up outside waiting for entry to the store, great fundraiser for us and Red Cross.

This week, long term member PP John Wallhead clocks up 31 years' service to our Rotary Club, congratulations John and thank you.

THE ROTARY 4 WAY TEST

of things that we think, say or do.

1. IS IT THE TRUTH?
2. IS IT FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED?
3. WILL IT BUILD GOODWILL AND BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. WILL IT BE BENEFICIAL TO ALL CONCERNED?

Project Director's Report.

Project Director Ian wished to thank his 'managers' for their outstanding contributions during the 2015/16 Rotary year.

Membership Director Matt White took the opportunity to introduce Rotary to the Red Cross ladies at the Aldi opening, couple of good prospects.

Next Sausage Sizzle at Bunnings. TBA

Michael Metcalf will be meeting with local community groups to consider how we can work with them for the mutual benefit of everyone in our community.

PP Genevieve Carr
Vocational

The next Wellard Village Markets to be held on Sunday 12th June. PDG John Iriks wished to thank members for their assistance last Sunday. Meeting with Colliers this week, among the options to consider are moving the markets from Pimlico Gardens to the Village centre.

Pres. Max Bird
International

The Aldi opening was a great success, club members cooked sausages from 7.30am till about 6pm, sausages and onions provided by Aldi. Ladies from Red Cross served sausages in a slice of bread (also provided by Aldi) for $2 each with the $2 going direct to Red Cross. Aldi paid our club a generous fee for providing our BBQ Trailer and labour on the day. Win Win all-round.

NAIDOC Week will be during the first week of July; we will be providing BBQ for $ payment on Friday 8th July.

Lorraine Lucas
Youth

Currently investigating options for a club vocational visit. Have decided to delay Peel Winery until the warmer weather. Will now be a tour of the golf course then lunch on Sunday 26th July at Marri Park Tavern.

Lorraine & Mike still looking for assistance with the bread project, currently handling up to 700 loaves per week, we are able to help many disadvantaged people in Kwinana.

Anyone able to help please see either Mike or Lorraine.

Fine Session

Sergeant: PP Stephen Castelli

John I: Often writes himself notes, 'thing to do' whilst compiling a list he often thinks at the end. "and a partridge in a pear tree" wrote a list of things to get from Bunnings, the list ended with 'partridge' He then could not work out when he arrived at Bunnings what the hell does 'partridge' mean. (I only write down what I hear!!!) Editor.

James S: Fined for Not wearing a tie this week.

Matt W: The 'late award'

Norm Mc: The award for being early for next week!!

WCE and Dockers both fined as usual.

Chris O: Had his photo in the local rag, 'Mr Grumpy'

Bevan P: Doing a 'plate return' to the kitchen.

Matt W: Ian C has a picture of Matt wearing a short skirt sitting in a very undignified manner from his Rotaract days.

Chris O: Actually wearing his badge tonight, excuse "I just found it"

John I: Tried to 'hold up the train' because Gareth was running down the platform trying to catch it.

Norm Mc: South Freo won, where is the tie?

Michael M: Phone calls.

James S: Telling Liz that he reads the Club Visioning document every night at bed time.

Max B: Was in hospital this afternoon having a couple of tests, apparently befriended a 'Bishop' Divine Intervention or what.

Chris O: Must be having eyesight problems, or do just like carrots.

Eric B: Fined by Greg, we all know how Eric is such a fussy eater, well during our cruise on the Rivers I saw Eric try more things than ever before and actually liked most of them.

Greg W: Fined himself for this one. Was taking mum to the doctors, felt that the ute was a little too hard for her to get in and out of, plan B, take the Peugeot. Jumped into the PUG, swiftly backed out of carport, BANG straight into the ute parked outside, 'double whammy'

We tend to forget that happiness doesn't come as a result of getting something we don't have, but rather of recognising and appreciating what we do have.

Guest Speaker: PDG Liz Westoby

Club Visioning Follow-up

Introduced by PDG Bob Cooper

PDG Liz Westoby previously visited our club on Monday 4th April to see how we had embraced and followed up on our Club Visioning session we held August 2014. When most members had obviously not followed the club visioning principals she arranged to come back in a few weeks to check on our progress.

Liz who has championed the process said that she was disappointed with the fact that not many club had taken up the process.

We had however produced a Club Visioning document some time ago which outlined the 5 year goals we had opted for previously but not followed up on.

Original workshop Aug 2014

The strong message from Liz is that we should be reviewing this document at least every three months to make sure that we were carrying out the wishes laid down by the club previously.

There was some spirited discussion on the benefits of such a document and how that fitted in with the 'culture' within our club. It was also pointed out that we have had a club 'Standing Orders' document which is amended and updated each year to reflect exactly what our club's Aims, Objectives and commitments are for the coming year.

PDG Liz is steadfast in her support for 'Club Visioning' and implored us to embrace the concept.

PDG John Iriks thanked Liz for her persuasive enthusiasm in presenting her case supporting the Club Visioning Process.

A woman went to the local psych

A woman went to the local psychic in hopes of contacting her dearly departed grandmother. The psychic's eyelids begin fluttering, her voice begins warbling, her hands float up above the table, and she begins moaning. Eventually, a coherent voice emanates, saying, "Granddaughter? Are you there?" The customer, wide-eyed and on the edge of her seat, responds, "Grandma? Is that you?"
"Yes granddaughter, it's me."
"It's really, really you, Grandma?" the woman repeats.
"Yes, it's really me, granddaughter."
The woman looks puzzled, "You're sure it's you, Grandma?"
"Yes, granddaughter, I'm sure it's me."
The woman pauses a moment, "Grandma, I have just one question for you."
"Anything, my child."
"When did you learn to speak English?"

A man has a racehorse that never won a race. The man says in disgust, "Horse, you win today or you pull a milk cart tomorrow morning."
The starting gate opens and all the horses take off running except for the man's horse which is lying there asleep on the track.
He kicks the horse and asks, "Why are you sleeping?"
The sleepy horse raises his head and says, "I have to get up at 3 o'clock in the morning."
