THE ROTARY FOUR WAY TEST

Of the things we say and do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it fair to ALL CONCERNED?

Will it build GOODWILL, and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Guest Speaker – Bruce Kuhn

Bert Shenko moving the vote of thanks to Bruce Kuhn.

Bruce is a member of the Broadbeach Rotary Club.

Bruce is an Inspector in the Queensland Police Service.

During the Commonwealth Games, Bruce was appointed, on short notice as the officer in charge in the handling of protests during the games.

The fact that we heard very little about the protests indicate the success of the handling of this very difficult area.

There were a number of indigenous activists who came from around Australia who wanted their messages to get on the TV screens.

This was allowed to happen through non-confrontational means. As a result, Bruce was able to form a relationship with the leaders of the activists that achieved their end but didn't disrupt the Commonwealth Games.

Bruce and his team of officers handled the issues sympathetically and firmly to the credit of all involved.

Peter and President Adrian welcoming Bruce Kuhn to our meeting.

Well it's obvious that Alan hasn't given up on his mountain climbing, And he looks in good health They must be mountain climbing sticks.

A woman, cranky because her husband was late coming home again, decided to leave a note saying,

"I've had enough and left you so don't bother coming after me." and hid under the bed to see his reaction.

After a short while the husband comes home and she could hear him in the kitchen before he comes into the bedroom.

She could see him walking towards the dresser and pick up the note.

After a few minutes he wrote something on it before picking up the phone and calling someone;

"She's finally gone.....yeah I know, about bloody time. I'm coming to pick you up so put on the sexy French shit. I love you".

He hung up, grabbed his keys and left.

She heard the car drive off as she came out from under the bed, seething with rage and with tears in her eyes she grabbed the note to see what he wrote;

"I can see your feet. Stop being ridiculous. We're outta bread. Put the coffee on.....back in 5".
