A Special Concert

On Friday 27 September, the Queensland Symphony Orchestra is putting on a special concert of popular light classics at the Arts Centre (aka HOTA). If you have not heard a live orchestra perform, come and be amazed at the beautiful sounds.

Tickets are only $45 each for a group of six. Contact Alan Midwood, 5538 9625.

Welcome Back

Guess who we found loitering around the doorway. Welcome back Don. Many kilos lighter but looking great.

THIS MONDAY NIGHT – Noel Grummitt

Folks, a reminder we have Noel Grummitt as our Guest Speaker this Monday.

As you probably know, Noel was an integral part of Alan Midwood's team in getting Stage 3 to fruition. And now, he continues to be a part of the Stage 4 experience.

I invited Noel to be guest speaker because he can give everyone a simple explanation of the GCCC regulations regarding zoning etc. and the history of Golden Wheel Villas relationship with the dreaded environmental blockheads at Council.

Noel is the leading Town Planner on the Coast and is husband to Margaret, former councillor and member of Rotary Parkwood. Partners are welcome as always.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Adrian Smallacombe

Adrian advised that Greg Smith, President of Runaway Bay Rotary had advised that their guest speaker on 1st October is from Alvey, the Australian Fishing Reel company started by Charles Alvey in 1920.

Phil Dunsford spoke for Bill White

The Race Day – Saturday 12 October

We need to focus on Ticket Sales.
Prizes for the Raffles can be services, eg car services
The Hospital supporters are getting prizes together.
Russ Walkington will be our MC.

Trevor Taylor

Trevor thanked the club for our support of the Nondugl Primary School project in New Guinea. He was pleased to be back after 22 years. He joined Surfers Paradise Rotary in 1989.

Trevor reported that the people were over the moon with the project going ahead. They placed the order with the hardware store and the equipment was delivered.

The Nondugl Rotary Club will do the installation and Trevor expect photos in the next couple of weeks.

Trevor also carried 23 surplus laptops from Merrimac High to the Club.

The president of the club runs computer courses. 20% who finish the course get jobs in Government offices.

On completion of the course, the student will be given one of these laptops.

Donna Gillett-Shaw

Donna is still seeking stamps which are becoming almost rare.

Donna is also requesting spectacles that have been made redundant by upgrades.
