The Facts & The Politics of COVID Management

Deborah is a clear thinker and a really good presenter. She has put a lot of thought into this thorny subject which should be of interest to our partners and visitors.

Club Information

GWV Board Meeting 5 pm 15 February

Fellows:

Please be reminded that our Board Meeting will commence sharply at 5pm this coming Monday. We will have an open discussion, led by Sue McKeen, on ways and means to approach corporations, retailers, etc. to contribute charity donations to the Stage 4 project.

Also, I will give each Board member the R&M Schedule for GWV. It makes for interesting reading. I will need board approval to commence the work. Costs are clearly shown.

Cheers
Alan G

Folks, On Tuesday next February 16, we will have fire and evacuation training on the spot at GWV.

It is a professional demonstration for all residents and you are welcome to attend if you are interested.

It will start at 10.30 am and last 1.5 hours.

We have recently hard-wired the smoke detectors in all units, each has a fire blanket, and emergency evacuation signs will be posted soon behind the front door.

Hope you can join us, especially if you haven't been to GWV recently. The gardens are in full bloom.

Cheers

Club Meetings

At last Monday's Board Meeting it was decided that:

The fifth Monday in March, being the 29th, will be a regular fortnightly meeting, to replace Monday 4 April, which is Easter Monday.

The April Board Meeting will also be held on Monday 29th March.

So regular fortnightly meetings in March will be on Mondays 1, 15 and 29; followed by only one regular meeting in April, being Monday 19th, which is the 3rd Monday in April.

Normal service will resume on Monday 3 May.

Cheers,

Bill

MEMBERS JOKER RAFFLE

Well, we finally got a winner. The last card in the deck was the Joker.

It turned out to be a very entertaining session with all members commiserating "sincerely" with the unsuccessful drawers.

Finally, we had to congratulate Kirk.

I was told it was a very popular outcome, by Kirk.

Sue presenting the $600+ prize to Kirk.

Well done Sue. As well as providing entertainment you also presented the Treasurer with $600+ courtesy of the members participating.

I just paid for a 12 month gym membership. My bank called to see if my credit card was stolen.

Guys I need your help. I'm in the middle of an argument with my wife and she just told me that I'm right. What the hell do I do next?!

My truck load of antidepressants has arrived.

You're a chocolate lab? Lemme check...
