Member behind the Badge

Bill Crouch presenting The Vote of Thanks to our newest Member, Marilyn Reynolds.

Marilyn was the middle child of 5. They lived in Temora, 418km south-west of Sydney where her father worked on the railway.as an electrician. She remembers being chased by a ram and getting milk from the tap into a billy from the back of a vehicle.

The family moved to Gosford on the central coast, 71km from Sydney. There she attended a catholic primary school. She was an academic and played sport. She was school captain at high school where she loved reading and was independent. In Year 12, she wanted to become a Psychologist. However, in those days Uni wasn't free and she won a Government teaching scholarship

Notices

Alan Guignon

Our GWV lease now extends to 2046. Anita Ramsey, Gold Coast Council is proud of the work we do which led to a quick result on the lease allocation.

The GWV board will meet on 15 February at 5pm to discuss commercially funding stage 4. Sue McKeen will be in attendance.

Bert Shenko

Bert advised that the sausage sizzle took $1,222. A profit of $729.10

Another sausage sizzle will be on Sunday, 14 February. It looked like we had enough members with a show of hands.

Rotary Foundation sleeves. Don had donated one and added to the total with another one on the night. Congratulations Don.

Bill White

One of the residents of GWV has donated a Chanel 5 Candle, wine and nets for a raffle.

Jeff Bignell

A few members attended the Magic Millions Dinner where John won the raffle of 3 nights at a resort. John has also offered the prize to be raffled. Congratulations John and Thank You.

to Newcastle Uni and was appointed to Fairfield High School which was a tough school. In those days, the migrants came from Italy and Greece but the students were responsive.

She has a son and a daughter. Her husband was an accountant and in 2004/5 the family decided to spend 12 months in England.

Marilyn was shocked to find the schools there lacked resources and the pupils were virtually out of control.

They had a holiday unit at Coffs Harbour. The family moved to the coast where Marilyn was teaching at St Josephs at Banora Point.

Marilyn now does supply work at Marymount College, Burleigh Heads.

Thanks Marilyn, for a very informative and entertaining Talk,

Jennifer introduced her guest, Cheryl Gibbons, who is interested in Rotary
