All services are free. Young people are able to self-refer, others can make a referral as can medical practitioners.

Forthcoming program

28 June	Club Changeover

Vale Rotarian John Lenehan

John passed away on Saturday, 12 June, following a brief fight with cancer. John, born in 1942, followed in his family's footsteps being associated with Horse racing. John had also been a successful developer. Our sincere sympathy to Margaret and Family.

There are 115 centres across Australia with the Gold Coast being the largest.

Alan Guignon moving the vote of thanks.

Stuart Fairley chatting with our newest member Cheryl Gibbons.

Club Guest Rob Cridland

Rob was invited by Alan Guignon to speak about white ant problems around Golden Wheel Villas to the GWV board.

Club Information.

Alan Guignon

Alan spoke of his efforts at the Surfers Paradise Primary School where he was putting sticks on the 30 Dictionaries that our club had donated.

Ed: This is a class set used so that all students are working off the same page in the same dictionary. If the children have to turn the page then they are all involved which would not be the case if something was put up on a screen. All classes would have access to the set borrowed from the library.

Bert Shenko

Bert wanted to thank the members who worked the sausage sizzle last Sunday. $1,330 was taken.

Thank you to:
President Donna, Jennifer, Marilyn, Sue M.
Adrian, Phil and Stuart.

Sorry Bert. You left one member out of the list. Somebody had to get the sausages, onions, bread, drinks, sauces, etc. tools, clean aprons, cash float, bring it all to Bunnings, set it all up, get lost for a couple of hours and then reappear, cook sausages and onions, clean up, pack up and then head off home where things magically get cleaned and restocked ready for the next one.

Bert and Rosi – Thank you!

Now for the Next Sausage Sizzle –
Sunday August 1.

Rotary Foundation Tubes – Thanks to Don
Donna

a Rotary Club. After much deliberation it had been decided that the fee for the coming year will be $150

At the Changeover, Alan would like a group photo of all members and partners that he may be able to use in promoting our club.
