Guest Speaker

Stuart Fairley moving the vote of thanks to Nancy Hansch along with Helen and Marilyn who introduced her.

Nancy spoke of her experiences as a casting agent in Hollywood.

Born in Burbank, Nancy explained that there were two main employers, Disney and Lockheed and the residents identified with one or the other. Nancy was with the Disney group. They had Disney involved with their schooling and offered treats and experiences.

With the introduction over, Nancy launched into a plethora of life experiences. Her reminiscences involved many of the well known stars of film, the stage and TV.

Nancy's talk was riveting, authentic and humorous. No holds barred.

The worst part – time ran out.

I was leaving the office the other day when I found the CEO standing in front of a shredder with a piece of paper in his hand.

Listen, he said, this is a very sensitive and important document, and my secretary has gone for the night. Can you make this thing work for me?

Sure, I said.

I turned the machine on, inserted the paper, and pressed the start button.

Excellent! He said as his paper disappeared into the machine. I just need one copy.
