Past President Alan with DG Andy cutting the cake for the Club's 65th Birthday.

DG Andy spoke of the leadership role Surfers Paradise played in the past with members from industry, politics and business guiding Rotary on the coast and chartering new clubs.

Andy feels that in this present climate, business people are going to be looking for a new way to conduct business and forming relationships with the community. This Andy sees as an avenue of service to draw in new members.

DG Andy spoke of the tremendous successes that the club had achieved over the years and continues with Golden Wheel Villas.

I read that 4,153,237 people were married last year. Not to cause any trouble, but shouldn't that be an even number?

I find it ironic that the colours red, white and blue stand for freedom until they are flashing behind you.

When wearing a bikini, women reveal 90% of their bodies. Men are so polite they only look at the covered parts.

Relationships are a lot like algebra. Have you ever looked at your X and wondered Y?

You know that tingly little feeling you get when you love someone? That's common sense leaving your body.

My therapist says I have a preoccupation with vengeance. We'll see about that.

I think my neighbour is stalking me as she's been Googling my name on her computer. I saw it through my telescope last night.

Money talks but all mine ever says is good-bye.

You're not fat, you're just easier to see.

If you think nobody cares whether you're alive, try missing a couple of payments.

I always wondered what the job application is like at Hooters. Do they just give you a bra and say, "Here, fill this out?"

The location of your mailbox shows you how far away from your house you can go in a robe before you start looking like a mental patient.

Money can't buy happiness, but it keeps the kids in touch.
