Last week @ Rotary: Welcome

A special welcome was extended to Lloyd Knight, a visiting Rotarian from the Rotary Club of Kew in Victoria, and as events turned out, our guest speaker. We sincerely trust Lloyd enjoyed his time with us.

International Toast

Tonight's international toast, presented by PHF and Sergeant, Bill Dickie, is to the Rotary Club of Cork, Ireland in Rotary district 1160 which has 75 clubs and 2273 members.

The Club received its charter on 26 August 1926 and has 24 members who meet at 6:00pm each Monday at the Gresham Metropole Hotel.

For further details, please refer to Bill's presentation as attached.
Thank you Bill.

General Business

Due to the absence of President Peter Keith who unfortunately was unable to attend due to farming duties, the meeting was ably chaired by PP Greg Madden.

Greg, as acting chairman, inducted into the Club, Associate Member Richard Siede, with Richard being introduced by PP Robin Price. Richard was presented with his member badge and was given a warm welcome by all at the meeting.

Directors' Reports – Graeme Bright advised a new Interact/breakfast club at Kelso High has started with the first breakfast being held next Monday.

Graeme also (on behalf of the Rifle Club) asked whether or not we would be conducting the BBQ again this year, at the Rifle Club's meeting to be held on October 26 next. Brian Burke and Greg Madden said they would assist on the day.

Club Christmas function: Wednesday, December 17 suggested. To be confirmed.

Three Minuter

The "Three Minuter" was presented this week by PP Bob Newton assisted by PP Geoff Fry, giving details of the 100th anniversary celebrations planned for next month's Bathurst motorcycle centenary.

Bob thanked the Club for its support and expressed the wish that our members join in the many activities being planned. Geoff stated tickets for the dinner to be held are available and cost only $40.00 per person, but if you do say you are going, you must pay whether or not you attend.

Further details will be given at next week's meeting when Bob, acting as our guest speaker, will further elaborate on what is planned.

Guest Speaker

Due to illness, there was no guest speaker available this evening.

Greg, though prevailed in asking our visiting Rotarian, Lloyd Night if he would like to fill the gap.

Although a Rotarian for only 15 months, Lloyd stepped up to the mark and gave a very interesting talk on his past life which included 19 years in the RAAF. Lloyd reached the rank of Squadron Leader and flew many types of aircraft both during his time in the RAAF as well as later in other fields of employment.

These included 15 years with Esso flying helicopters to and from the Bass Straight oil platforms, and later, spend 18 years with the Civil Aircraft Authority as an examiner.

Lloyd served in Vietnam and told of a heart rendering story involving Australian service personnel and the humane manner in which the Vietcong enemy were treated by our soldiers. One occasion related and witnessed by Lloyd, involved a scared, young Vietcong NLF prisoner. The prisoner thought the Australians were going to throw him out of the helicopter once the helicopter was airborne, as it seems may have happened to others by non-Australian personnel.

Instead, he received great compassion from the military police sergeant in charge, with the sergeant even carrying his Vietcong prisoner from the helicopter upon arrival, as the prisoner wasn't able to walk.

Lloyd is also the author of a book he has written about the war in Korea entitled "Rainbow, No End"

At the end of the talk, PP Bob Newton thanked Lloyd on behalf of us all and presented Lloyd with another of our unbelievably rare, worth its weight in gold, collector's edition, coffee mugs.

Editor: I "Googled" Lloyd's book and found the following details (thought you may be interested):

This fictional story about an Australian Secret Service agent is set in the present. However, it contains exciting flashbacks to his earlier wartime exploits in Korea and Japan and a lost love. He battles, almost single-handedly against internal skullduggery whilst trying to foil a terrorist plot to attack a foreign embassy. His adventures take him from capital cities, into the Australian bush and eventually to Turkey. The book can be purchased from Amazon (www.amazon.com), Trafford's (www.trafford.com) or other book retailers. Help Lloyd – place your order now.

Thought of the Week

The thought this week being a quote from W. Somerset Maugham, was presented by PP Greg Madden:

Only a mediocre man is always at his best.

William Somerset Maugham CH was a British playwright, novelist and short story writer. He was among the most popular writers of his era and reputedly the highest paid author during the 1930s.

Question. Did you attend another Rotary meeting or participate in a Rotary project or activity? Please advise all Rotary make-ups to Alan Petersen.

October is Rotary Vocational Service Month

The Object of Rotary is a philosophical statement of Rotary's purpose and the responsibilities of Rotarians. The concept of Vocational Service is rooted in the Second Object of Rotary which calls on Rotarians to encourage and foster:

- High ethical standards in business and professions
- The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations
- The dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society

Who do you know in our Community who exemplifies this in the personal and professional life?

IT'S COME AND IT'S GONE FOR ANOTHER YEAR - the Bathurst 1000.

In summary, the winners were

Chaz Mostert and co-driver, Paul Morris, pipping Jamie Whincup in final lap

Other than your Editor, who else predicted Ford would be the winner? Ah, it's hard to be humble.

Top 10 places were:

2014 BATHURST 1000 TOP 10

1. Chaz Mostert (Ford)
2. James Moffat (Nissan)
3. Nick Percat (Holden)
4. Will Davison (Mercedes)
5. Jamie Whincup (Holden)
6. Mark Winterbottom (Ford)
7. Todd Kelly (Nissan)
8. Rick Kelly (Nissan)
9. Fabian Coulthard (Holden)
10. Craig Lowndes (Holden)

Some others:

A cab driver reaches the pearly gates. St. Peter looks him up in his Big Book and tells him to pick up a gold staff and a silk robe and proceed into Heaven. Next in line is a preacher. St. Peter looks him up in his Big Book, furrows his brow and says, "OK, we'll let you in, but take that cloth robe and wooden staff." The preacher is shocked and replies, "But I am a man of the cloth. You gave that cab driver a gold staff and a silk robe. Surely I rate higher than a cabbie!" St. Peter responds matter-of-factly, "This is Heaven and up here, we are interested in results. When you preached, people slept. When the cabbie drove his taxi, people prayed."

A taxi passenger tapped the driver on the shoulder to ask him a question. The driver screamed, lost control of the car, nearly hit a bus, went up on the footpath, and stopped centimeters from a shop window. For a second everything went quiet in the cab, then the driver said, "Look mate, don't ever do that again. You scared the daylights out of me!" The passenger apologized and said, "I didn't realize that a little tap would scare you so much." The driver replied, "Sorry, it's not really your fault. Today is my first day as a cab driver – I've been driving a funeral van for the last 25 years."

A hound dog lays in the yard and an old man in overalls sits on the porch. "Excuse me, sir, but does your dog bite?" a jogger asks. The old man looks over his newspaper and replies, "Nope." As soon as the jogger enters the yard, the dog begins snarling and growling, and then attacks the jogger's legs. As the jogger flails around in the yard, he yells, "I thought you said your dog didn't bite!" The old man mutters, "Ain't my dog."

A wife was making a breakfast of fried eggs for her husband. Suddenly, her husband burst into the kitchen. "Careful," he said, "CAREFUL! Put in some more butter! Oh my gosh! You're cooking too many at once. TOO MANY! Turn them! TURN THEM NOW! We need more butter. Oh my gosh! WHERE are we going to get MORE BUTTER? They're going to STICK! Careful. CAREFUL! I said be CAREFUL! You NEVER listen to me when you're cooking! Never! Turn them! Hurry up! Are you CRAZY? Have you LOST your mind? Don't forget to salt them. You know you always forget to salt them. Use the! Salt. USE THE SALT! THE SALT!" The wife stared at him. "What in the world is wrong with you? You think I don't know how to fry a couple of eggs?" The husband calmly replied, "I just wanted to show you what it feels like when I'm driving."

This older Jewish man was on the operating table awaiting surgery and he insisted that his son, a renowned surgeon, perform the operation. As he was about to receive the anesthesia he asked to speak to his son. "Yes Dad, what is it?" "Don't be nervous, son, do your best and just remember, if it doesn't go well, if something happens to me... your mother is going to come and live with you and your wife..."

A 45 year old woman had a heart attack and was immediately transported to the hospital. While she was in surgery she had a supernatural, near death experience. She met God and asked him: "Has my time come?" He answered: "No, you have 43 years, 2 months and 8 more days to live." After she recovered, the woman decided to stay in hospital and do plastic surgery on her face, liposuction, breast enlargement and abdominal fat removal. She also called a hair stylist to change her hairstyle and an orthodontist to perform a 'teeth lifting'. She figured, if she had so much time in front of her, she should live the best way possible. After her last plastic surgery and not until she has recovered, she wore a new dress with matching heels, left the hospital, went across the street and an ambulance run over her... While crossing the gates to heaven, she reached God and demanded to know what happened: "You told me I had 43 more years! Why didn't you save me from the ambulance?" And he answered: "I didn't recognize you."

And finally.....

I found a Justin Bieber concert ticket nailed to a tree, so I took it! You never know when you might need a nail.
