Phoenix Rotary 100 Arizona's First Rotary Club

We wish to thank outgoing District Governor Jeanie Morgan
for all her hard work this past year

Our best wishes to incoming Governor Jim Green
We wish him an outstanding 2010-2011

John Blount is a dentist, in private practice for the past thirty-two years in Sebastopol, California. He and his wife of thirty-five years, Patti, are both members of the Rotary Club of Sebastopol, California. They are major donors and bequest society members of The Rotary Foundation.

John has a long history of training Rotary leaders. He has taught incoming District Governors at Zone institutes fourteen times. He chaired the Education Division for incoming Rotary leaders in the Western United States and Canada in 2007-08.

John was Governor of District 513 in 1990-1991. He has the distinction of being the youngest to hold that office in District 5130's history.

Dr. Blount has been a part of his community since arriving in Sebastopol in 1976. Among other activities, he has chaired a 33,000 square foot church building project, served as trustee on the Sonoma County Community Foundation, been a six-term director for the Redwood Empire Dental Society, and served multiple years as a board member of the Sebastopol Chamber of Commerce.

John and Patti have one daughter, Dr. Jennifer Thorn, and a two-year-old granddaughter, Sofia.
