- Jerry reviewed all the details about the golf outing: 94 golfers, 39 T signs and 22 auction items. His forecast is good for money raised.
- Beth Marshall introduced our speaker and District Governor, Judy Hughes

Presentation/Discussion: Judy Hughes, District Governor

Judy introduced her husband, Jim, to speak about the International President from Australia, Ian Riseley. Judy talked about the funds for polio and how they are distributed. She also encouraged us to include more women in membership. Her third point was to enhance public image of Rotary promoting Rotary materials, wearing our Rotary pins and building partnerships with businesses to maintain sustainability. Ian Riseley is all about accountability! To that point, we need to keep correct and up to date data about our club. He also wants to plant a tree for every Rotary Club. Judy also spoke about her special orphanage project in Uganda. Other projects are the phone app called 2-1-1, and volunteers for emergencies.
