Secretary Report:

Rich noted that all the emails he has on his list should be working correctly now as he did not receive any notifications from emails deliveries not working.

Treasurer Report:

Jen reported that invoices are still outstanding and are currently due. If you need another copy of the invoice be sure to check your email and then ask Jen if that does not work.

Ball Drop:

Bill noted that we do not need any more golf balls and that there will be 40 raffle tickets allotted to each club member. There will be 1000 tickets and it will be split up by 25 "sellers" giving us 40 tickets each.

Cruise:

Glen mentioned that we officially have 3 couples going on the cruise. This will allow us to receive $1,500-$2,000 in funds for our club. A special thank you to Glen for his work on this event.

Bowling:

Greg mentioned that we have reserved 28 lanes at Family Bowl-Away for a maximum of 168 bowlers. It was discussed that we planned to offer 3-4 lanes to Wounded Warriors as a nice way to directly benefit our local Wounded Warriors. We will contact the bowling alley to see if they might be able to give us a couple extra lanes for these Veterans. We will need help on the bowling event after the holidays.

Breakfast with Santa:

John said everything is set for breakfast with Santa for this Saturday December 12th, in our normal meeting room for the Club. He needs volunteers to arrive around 8:30-8:45 AM to help set up. Pancake and sausage will be served with children and Santa will be present. The event starts at 9 AM.

Christmas Party:

John has set the date of the Christmas Party to Tuesday December 29th at the Adams Ridge Community Center. The event is BYOB and will start around 6 PM. There are 3 things that can be done to actively participate in the festivities; 1. $20 "regift" grab bag, 2. Bring a bottle of cheer for raffle, and 3. Bring a dozen cookies per couple for everyone to enjoy! Step 4. Have fun!

Suicide Prevention Walk:

John spoke to us about a call he recently received on a troubled girl who was sent a mass text about potentially committing suicide. The girl is in her late teens and was reaching out for help through the mass text. John proceeded to call, then Linda, whom contacted the family and subsequently was able to reach the girl and get her the help/attention that she needs. John mentioned that these types of things are why we are planning the Suicide Prevention Walk to spread awareness. He closed the talk by stating that the event will be large and of great importance to the community.
