Rotary Club of Jackson

October 10, 2017

Vol IV. No 15

Many Hands Make “Light” Work

My Theme this year is, “TEAMWORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK”. I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the many members who helped make the inaugural Big Game Kickoff Breakfast a huge success. The committee included present and former members, all working together to ensure that the Rotary Club of Jackson received outstanding community recognition for our efforts. The Committee consisted of the following members:

- Committee Chair : Marv Hampton
- Committee Co-Chair: Dirk Wentling
- Logo Designer: Aaron May
- Financial Support for Big Game Hats: Stan Lukowicz
- Banner Donation: Kam Merzlak
- School Liaison : Frank Halverson
- Publicity : Jack Mitchell
- Banquet Facilities: Frank Manzano
- Big Game Attendees: Rick Sprenkel, JoAnn Sprenkel. Frank Verardi, Meg Verardi, Nancy Wentling

As you have already heard, the Argonaut Mustangs won the Big Game with a score of 43-21 over the Amador Buffaloes. The school spirit was high as the crowd cheered the home team for winning the Battle for the Bell. Our Club received widespread community exposure and there are already plans to build on our success for next year’s Big Game. Thank you to all who participated, I really appreciate your spirit and enthusiasm!

RIP Virgil “Red” Mathia

We are saddened to report to the membership that Red suffered a major stroke last week. He had heart surgery at Mercy General Hospital in Sacramento. After the surgery, he was in recovery talking to Debbie. Shortly thereafter he suffered a major stroke from which he did not recover. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife Debbie and daughter Mary.
