March 23rd annual meeting –

Our new directors Gary Hardesty, Jim Snyder, Lucy Rechel and Terry Scott were introduced.

The club expressed gratitude to our Assistant District Governor Lorie McMahon.

Club and Foundation financial reports were provided. In both cases we need to do fundraising to continue our work in 2022.

The club voted in favor of District 5190 policy revisions.

After much discussion the club voted to cancel our in-person May 1st Dinner/dance. Several alternative fundraising options were discussed. Stay tuned.

April 13th meeting: Special guest Bill Boone.

We will be welcoming a 'not new' Rotarian Jim Sanford back.

"Rotarians at Work shirts" will be distributed at meeting for all who plan to work on April 24. For those who do not attend meeting but to plan to work April 24th please contact Jan to make arrangements for getting a shirt.

Rotarians at Work April 24th -road clean up 10:am – 12:00. Meet at Library Rest Area. We will be having lunch at the Rest Area on SR 339 between Goldfield and Bridge streets around noon. All are welcome.

Special Notes:

We are seeking a new club secretary and treasurer for next year. Please speak to a board member if you are able to serve in this important role. You will receive training.
